information about the particular herald being considered Each chapter is also illustrated with a beautiful pen and ink drawing by Ralph Scott Harbingers of spring explore birds trees flowers mammals and even the night sky For many along the Gulf Coast the arrival of the first purple martin signifies the season As Petra Hockey of Port O Connor says I run outside to welcome them and they seem just as happy to be back as I am to have them Now spring has arrived In the Trans Pecos two welcome signs of spring are the blooming of the Big Bend bluebonnets and the arrival of Cassin s kingbirds in the Davis Mountains But for Mark Adams of the McDonald Observatory as the Earth swings closer to spring Pegasus the Winged Horse emerges from the solar glare into the predawn sky My spring herald For many in Central Texas spring has come when the Mexican buckeyes and redbuds begin flowering and the golden cheeked warbler arrives But for Burr Williams in the Panhandle and Western Plains spring is best expressed by the myriad of invertebrate tracks that he finds on the sand dunes at Monahans State Park Anyone who loves outdoor Texas will relish this delightful celebration of spring
