Virginia and the New Nation Study Guide

After the colonists won their independence during the Revolutionary War, the new American nation had to be established. Virginia had an important role in this process. The actions and ideas of some Virginians formed the basis for the new constitutional government of the United States of America.

Important Virginians:

Two Virginians who were important during the establishment of the United States include George Washington and James Madison.

George Washington, the "Father of Our Country"

- was elected the first President of the United States of America
- provided the strong leadership needed to help the young country
- provided a model of leadership for future presidents

James Madison, the "Father of the Constitution"

- led the way in the importance of having a United States constitution
- kept debates going during the Constitutional Convention
- was skilled at compromise and helped compromise (agreements) reach agreement during the difficult process of writing the Constitution of the United States of America

Important Documents:

The United States Constitution was an important document. It outlined how the government of the United States would work. It established how to run the American government and more.

Two other important documents, both written by Virginians, focused on protecting people's rights. Key ideas from these documents are included in the Constitution in the "Bill of Rights."

Document	Author	It Stated...
the Virginia Declaration of Rights	George Mason	All Virginians have many rights, including freedom of religion and
