Mistletoe and the Emerging Future of Integrative Oncology Stephen

Johnson, Nasha Winters, Adam Blanning, Marion Debus, Paul Faust, Mark Hancock, Peter Hinderberger, 2023-05-09 Today many allopathic medical practitioners are beginning to seek out a greater connection with holistic and integrative approaches The authors of this book introduce one specific therapy and make a case for integrative health in general including anthroposophically extended medicine naturopathy and other holistic approaches Mistletoe therapy has long been considered a viable treatment for cancer by the European medical community and is beginning to gain recognition in North America as well The mistletoe plant possesses many remarkable properties As a therapy it represents a rediscovery of ancient wisdom and shows us how the science of modern medicine might expand its reach and reconnect with a more human centered medicine The book is structured to follow the syllabus of a three day practitioner training hosted by the Physicians Association for Anthroposophic Medicine PAAM It serves as an introductory summary of not a replacement for those intensive professional trainings While this book should not be regarded as a treatment or diagnostic manual it is intended to both prepare practitioners to begin mistletoe therapy training and to make this information available in an accessible form to anyone interested in learning about this approach to treating cancer
