Versions of Zimbabwe. New Approaches to Literature and Culture Robert Muponde, Ranka Primorac, 2005-06-15 The book is the result of a collaboration of scholars from southern Africa and overseas whose work emphasises hitherto overshadowed subjects of literature exposing new and untried approaches to Zimbabwean writing. The contributors focus on pluralities, inclusiveness and the breaking of boundaries and elucidate how literary texts are betraying multiple versions and opinions of Zimbabwe, arguing that only a multiplicity of opinions on Zimbabwe can do the complexity of the society and history justice.

The Oxford Guide to the Bantu Languages Lutz Marten, Ellen Hurst-Harosh, Nancy C. Kula, Jochen Zeller, 2025 This volume brings together leading scholars from the African continent and beyond to provide a detailed account of the languages of the Bantu family. The book will be an essential resource for students and researchers specializing in the Bantu languages and for typologists and comparative linguists more broadly. The Worlding of the South African Novel Jane Poyner, 2020-08-20 The Worlding of the South African Novel develops from something of a paradox that despite momentous political transition from apartheid to democracy little in South Africa's socio-economic reality has actually changed. Poyner discusses how the contemporary South African novel engages with this reality. In forms of literary experiment the novels open up intellectual spaces shaping or contesting the idea of the new South Africa. The mediatising of truth at the TRC hearings, how best to deal with a spectacular yet covert past, the shaping of unimagined communities of an inclusive public sphere, HIV/AIDS as the preeminent site testing capitalist modernity, white anxieties about land reform, disease as environmental injustice and the fostering of an enabling restorative cultural memory. Poyner argues that through these key nodes of intellectual thought the novels speak to recent debates on world literature to register the shock of an uneven modernity produced by a capitalist world economy. Sisemhlabeni J.P.
