Employability via Higher Education: Sustainability as Scholarship Alice Diver, 2019-09-23 This book discusses the topic of graduate employability from the premise that in this era of massification economic austerity and political uncertainties higher education HE no longer guarantees a clear work place advantage Divided into three sections the book offers theoretical and philosophical discourses on the HE quandary whilst taking into account and critiquing political temporal and national contexts It culminates in an investigation into specific discipline areas It offers insights into the way that institutions decision makers academics and professional support staff can work together towards ensuring that our graduates are able to cope with the varied demands and challenges of modern job markets It harnesses arguments and reflections on the breadth and depth of the functions of HE such as social transformation promoting principles of social justice and providing opportunities It grounds these in a triadic model for enhancing student engagement and holistic learning namely the emotional cognitive and behavioural aspects As an anthology it is forward gazing in terms of the sustainability debate whilst still offering evidence based research grounded practical suggestions to readers looking for tips and tools of the trade

SRA Open Court Reading Marilyn Jager Adams, 2002 Contains materials designed to aid students in understanding the stories and lessons in Level 5 of the SRA Open Court reading series Blackline masters in the decodable books allow students to apply their knowledge of phonics elements to read simple texts

Acts of Reading Thomas Page Anderson, Ryan Netzley, 2010 Acts of Reading examines how John Foxe's Actes and Monuments shaped reading and interpretive practice in the early modern period and addresses the impact of recent electronic editions of Foxe's text on current reading practice and scholarship The collection draws on history of the book scholarship to make a plea for the centrality of Foxe to any discussion of Renaissance literary history These essays also productively attend to the relationship between the materiality of books and the conceptual assumptions that govern our engagement with them The anthology's focus on digital editions of Foxe's Book of Martyrs allows it to explore the often conflicted relationship between modern technologies of book production and reception and the early modern texts transmitted via these technologies More broadly Acts of Reading explores how books and our encounters with them through different media turn us into who we are Thomas Anderson is an Assistant Professor of English at Mississippi State University Ryzn Netzley is an Assistant Professor of English at Southern Illinois University
