The Myanmar Maneuver Ruth A. Manieri, 2006-05 The Myanmar Maneuver begins in the Land of the Pagoda where cone shaped pagodas dot the country everywhere Charlie Ling a gemologist from New York on a business trip in search of precious gemstones travels to the Mogok Valley to acquire rare rubies While there he not only experiences the Land of Rubies but he stumbles upon an unusual turtle sculpture that will change his life and those of his friends Follow this intriguing journey to the Golden Land as the turtle and its treasure takes Charlie Ling on a trek of a lifetime The journey begins in Bangkok moves to the tropics of Myanmar continues in Chinatown in New York jumps to New Jersey and finally returns to New York The author brings characters of five different ethnic backgrounds together as she weaves her adventure The lives of her characters are effectively intertwined with the turtle and its slow moving quandary The surprise the turtle holds for all of them is its secret cache a rare ruby which will affect each one of them and change their lives In your mind's eye observe what it does and how it touches the lives of the characters

Gracefully Insane Alex Beam, 2009-07-21 Its landscaped ground chosen by Frederick Law Olmsted and dotted with Tudor mansions could belong to a New England prep school There are no fences no guards no locked gates But McLean Hospital is a mental institution one of the most famous most elite and once most luxurious in America McLean alumni include Olmsted himself Robert Lowell Sylvia Plath James Taylor and Ray Charles as well as more secretly other notables from among the rich and famous In its golden age McLean provided as genteel an environment for the treatment of mental illness as one could imagine But the golden age is over and a downsized downscale McLean despite its affiliation with Harvard University is struggling to stay afloat Gracefully Insane by Boston Globe columnist Alex Beam is a fascinating and emotional biography of McLean Hospital from its founding in 1817 through today It is filled with stories about patients and doctors the Ralph Waldo Emerson protégé whose brilliance disappeared along with his madness Anne Sexton's poetry seminar and many more The story of McLean is also the story of the hopes and failures of psychology and psychotherapy of the evolution of attitudes about mental illness of approaches to treatment and of the economic pressures that are making McLean and other institutions like it relics of a bygone age This is a compelling and often oddly poignant reading for fans of books like Plath's The Bell Jar and Susanna Kaysen's Girl Interrupted both inspired by their author's stays at McLean and for anyone interested in the history of medicine or psychotherapy or the social history of New England

Last Sentry Gregory Young, Nate Braden, 2013-10-15 Providing inspiration for Tom Clancy's The Hunt for Red October the 1975 mutiny aboard the Soviet destroyer Storozhevoy translated Sentry aimed at nothing less than the overthrow of Leonid Brezhnev and the Soviet government Valery Sablin a brilliant young political officer seized control of the ship by convincing half the officers and all of the sailors to sail to Leningrad where they would launch a new Russian Revolution Suppressed in the Soviet Union for fifteen years Young the first American to uncover the mutiny twenty years ago and Braden finally tell the untold story relying on recently declassified KGB documents as well as the Sablin family's papers. It is a gripping account of a disillusioned idealist forced to make the agonizing choice between working within or destroying the system he is sworn to protect.
