A Third Great Disappointment for the Remnant Canute R. Birch, 2012 Do you remember singing Jesus Loves the Little Children in Sabbath School as a young child? Red and yellow, black and white, all are precious in His sight. Jesus loves the little children of the world. Jesus loves everyone but as His followers we often struggle to follow His example. In A Third Great Disappointment for the Remnant Pastor Birch presents his research findings on race relations, the Millerite movement, slavery, the Civil War, segregation, the evangelical movement and much more addressing how these events have impacted and shaped the Seventh day Adventist Church. He goes on to examine current race relations in the Adventist Church and the creation of ethnic conferences and warns against a final great disappointment of lost souls at Christ's second coming if we do not reconcile ourselves with each other and finish the work as one unified body. With a passion for racial and ethnic reconciliation, Birch offers recommendations on how to strengthen the Adventist Church through understanding and healing. We are precious in God's sight but we should also be precious in each other's sight.
