The Trial of Jack the Ripper E Macpherson,2011-11-18 A shocking and brutal murder had taken place in the city in February that year and the words Jack Ripper is at the back of this door were found written in chalk on a door at the scene of the crime When he was arrested the accused William Bury admitted that he was afraid he would be arrested as Jack the Ripper The police investigation uncovered some disturbing details William Bury was a small dark haired man who was known to have been violent towards women He had been born and brought up in the Midlands but had moved to the East End of London in the late autumn of 1887 On 20 January 1889 he and his wife travelled by boat to Dundee This meant that he had arrived in London before the start of the Jack the Ripper murders and had left around the same time that they ceased Could this be coincidence people wondered Could it also be a coincidence that the murder in Dundee carried all the hallmarks of a ripper murder In the month before the trial the local newspapers in Dundee began to run sensational stories linking the accused with the notorious Whitechapel murders When the trial opened to a packed courtroom many in the public gallery were wondering if the man standing in the dock was none other than Jack the Ripper himself In this sensational and ground breaking book Euan Macpherson presents the evidence that the long arm of the law really did catch up with Jack the Ripper in a dingy basement flat in Dundee in the cold winter months of early 1889 The British Trade Journal ,1912
