Joyce Thornton Barry

If you think learning life science is dull and difficult, open this book—and think again!

Really. This isn't going to hurt at all . . .
The thought of having to learn life science once turned brave students into cowards . . . but no more!

This book will guide you through the steps involved in understanding principles of life science. You'll discover many interesting facts about different forms of plants and animals
. . . and do it painlessly!
