Disability Identity in Simulation Narratives Anelise Haukaas,2023-12-14

Disability Identity in Simulation Narratives considers the relationship between disability identity and simulation activities ranging from traditional gameplay to more revolutionary technology in contemporary science fiction Anelise Haukaas applies posthumanist theory to an examination of disability identity in a variety of science fiction texts adult novels young adult literature and comics as well as ethnographic research with gamers Haukaas argues that instead of being a means of escapism simulated experiences are a valuable tool for cultivating self acceptance and promoting empathy Through increasingly accessible technology and innovative gameplay traditional hierarchies are dismantled and different ways of being are both explored and validated Ultimately the book aims to expand our understandings of disability performance and self creation in significant ways by exploring the boundless selves that the simulated environments in these texts allow
