From the Crash to the Blitz, 1929-1939 Cabell Phillips, 2000 A popular history of the US in the decade preceding World War II copiously illustrated with photographs The author relying heavily on the files of The New York Times for whom he was a long time reporter presents what he calls a journalistic reprise rather than a scholastic history that while centered on the political effects of the New Deal and the road to war also explores the worlds of sports literature crime and other social aspects of the decade

From the Crash to the Blitz, 1929-1939 Cabell B. H. Phillips, 1969 In unforgettable words and images Cabell Phillips takes the reader from the crash of the stock market to the crash of bombs in Poland The journey was a monumental one for Americans time of bitterness and despair of failure and hunger and want but also of rebirth The New Deal was part of a social revolution a recreation of the American experiment In popular culture too the decade beginning with 1929 saw a new flowering in music in radio and in the movies now equipped with sound tracks In baseball America's pastime the decade saw the exit of the mighty Babe and the coming of the great DiMaggio and Ted Williams the Brown Bomber Joe Louis dominated boxing More ominously overseas dictators and militarists were on the march across

Europe and Asia Soon Americans would be drawn into the whirlwind Phillips's goal has been to tell you not only what happened but what it was like to be there His sources were the files of The New York Times and the leading periodicals of the day histories memoirs diaries and government reports Together text and photographs offer a total historical experience of a decade in the life of a nation shadowed by depression heading toward war vibrating with its own frenzied excitement
