The Inequality Machine Paul Tough,2021-03-04 Indelible and extraordinary a powerful reckoning with just how far we ve allowed reality to drift from our ideals Tara Westover New York Times Book Review We re told that universities are our greatest driver of social mobility But it s a lie The Inequality Machine is a damning expos of how the university system ingrains injustice at every level of American society Paul Tough bestselling author of How Children Succeed exposes a world where small town colleges go bust while the most prestigious raise billions every year where overstretched admissions officers are forced to pick rich candidates over smart ones where black and working class students are left to sink or swim on uncaring campuses Along the way he uncovers cutting edge research from the academics leading the way to a new kind of university one where students succeed not because of their background but because of the quality of their minds The result is a call to arms for universities that work for everyone and a manual for how we can make it happen Humanizes the process of higher education Fascinating stories about efforts to remediate class disparities in higher education New Yorker

Recent Progress in Slow Sand and Alternative Biofiltration Processes Rolf Gimbel,Nigel Graham,M. Robin Collins,2006-03-31 Slow sand filtration is typically cited as being the first engineered process in drinking water treatment Proven modifications to the conventional slow sand filtration process the awareness of induced biological activity in riverbank filtration systems and the growth of oxidant induced biological removals in more rapid rate filters e g biological activated carbon demonstrate the renaissance of biofiltration as a treatment process that remains viable for both small rural communities and major cities Biofiltration is expected to become even more common in the future as efforts intensify to decrease the presence of disease causing microorganisms and disinfection by products in drinking water to minimize microbial regrowth potential in distribution systems and where operator skill levels are emphasized Recent Progress in Slow Sand and Alternative Biofiltration Processes provides a state of the art assessment on a variety of biofiltration systems from studies conducted around the world The authors collectively represent a perspective from 23 countries and include academics biofiltration system users designers and manufacturers It provides an up to date perspective on the physical chemical biological and operational factors affecting the performance of slow sand filtration SSF riverbank filtration RBF soil aquifer treatment SAT and biological activated carbon BAC processes The main themes are comparable overviews of biofiltration systems slow sand filtration process behavior treatment performance and process developments and alternative biofiltration process behaviors treatment performances and process developments

The Years That Matter Most Paul Tough, 2019-09-12 What has gone wrong in our universities And how do we make it right When Amy applied to university she thought she d be judged purely on her merits But she never thought that her family background would have as much impact on her future as her grades When KiKi arrived at university she knew she could be the only black woman in her class But she didn t know how out of place she would feel nor how unwelcoming her peers would be When Orry graduated from university he was told he d probably land a six figure salary But he wasn t told he d end up barely scraping a living wage struggling to feed his children Drawing on the stories of hundreds of American students The Years That Matters Most is a revelatory account of a university system in crisis Paul Tough bestselling author of How Children Succeed exposes a world where small town colleges go bust while the most prestigious raise billions every year where overstretched admissions officers are forced to pick rich candidates over smart ones where black and working class students are left to sink or swim on uncaring campuses Along the way he uncovers cutting edge research from the academics leading the way to a new kind of university one where students succeed not because of their background but because of the quality of their minds The result is a call to arms for universities that work for everyone and a manual for how we can make it happen
