Online Walker Finds Way Running Autism:

Autistic Community and the Neurodiversity Movement Steven K. Kapp,2019-11-07 This open access book marks the first historical overview of the autism rights branch of the neurodiversity movement describing the activities and rationales of key leaders in their own words since it organized into a unique community in 1992 Sandwiched by editorial chapters that include critical analysis the book contains 19 chapters by 21 authors about the forming of the autistic community and neurodiversity movement progress in their influence on the broader autism community and field and their possible threshold of the advocacy establishment The actions covered are legendary in the autistic community including manifestos such as Don t Mourn for Us mailing lists websites or webpages conferences issue campaigns academic project and journal a book and advisory roles These actions have shifted the landscape toward viewing autism in social terms of human rights and identity to accept rather than as a medical collection of deficits and symptoms to cure

Life and Labour Maria Giatsi Clausen,Eurig Scandrett,2026-01-27

What makes human activity meaningful This book explores how social economic and political forces have shaped the meaning of occupation throughout history Tracing the shift from industrial capitalism s division of work and life it analyses how movements for gender equality labour rights decolonization and disability activism have contested what is considered meaningful From the trade union fight for shorter hours to the feminist reimagining of domestic labour the book examines the struggles over who defines occupation and for whose benefit With case studies by activist scholars this provocative book reveals how conflicts are central to shaping modern social relations

War on Autism Anne McGuire,2016-04-28

War on Autism examines autism as a historically specific and power laden cultural phenomenon that has much to teach about the social organization of a neoliberal western modernity Bringing together a variety of interpretive theoretical perspectives including critical disability studies queer and critical race theory and cultural studies the book analyzes the social significance and productive effects of contemporary discourses of autism as these are produced and circulated in the field of autism advocacy Anne McGuire reveals how in the field of autism advocacy autism often appears as an abbreviation its multiple meanings distilled to various red flag warnings in awareness campaigns bulleted biomedical facts in information pamphlets or worrisome statistics in policy reports She analyzes the relationships between these fragmentary enactments of autism and traces their continuities to reveal an underlying powerful and ubiquitous logic of violence that casts autism as a pathological threat that advocacy must work to eliminate Such logic McGuire contends functions to delimit the role of the good autism advocate to one who is positioned against autism Book jacket

Grace Under Pressure Sophie Walker,2012-10-04

When Sophie Walker s daughter Grace was diagnosed with Asperger Syndrome her world unravelled Her high powered job was in disarray she couldn t sleep often woke in tears and felt hopeless and useless in her role as a mother One day she realised she hadn t done any exercise for months neglecting her physical health as well as her mental wellbeing Previously a keen runner she set herself the challenge of running the London Marathon to raise awareness of Asperger

Syndrome and make herself physically strong enough to support her daughter Invigorated by the physical challenge she had set herself Sophie began a blog Grace Under Pressure writing about both day to day life raising Grace alongside training for the marathon The combination caught the imagination of readers and the blog took off garnering praise from a wide range of sources Now transformed into a book Grace Under Pressure is a moving story that charts the highs and lows of raising a child with Asperger Syndrome and the physical challenge of training for a long distance running event Caught in the Web of the Criminal Justice System Lawrence A.
