The Manipulation of Literature Theo Hermans, 1985-01-01 Linguacultural Hybridity and Translation Zahra Reyhani Monfared, 2024-10-28 In an increasingly globalised world the cultures of Orient and Occident are no longer firmly separated This hybridity is also a part of literature a concept which needs to be explored in Translation Studies This study examines its evolution across language culture literature and translation It introduces a sociolinguistic approach for studying marginalized hybrid texts and their translations into English focusing on the power dynamics that dichotomize the world into First Third worlds The author examines how sociological factors in central societies affect the acceptance and recognition of marginalized literary works within Western literary circles and world literature The study analyses classical and modern Persian literature It highlights the double voicedness in these texts By illustrating how hybrid elements from R m s mystical poems and Hid yat s surrealist prose are re created in their English translations it elevates the analysis of hybrid elements to a languacultural level The Muhammad Avatāra Ayesha A. Irani, 2021 The Muhammad Avatara examines the understudied seventeenth century Nabivamsa of Saiyad Sultan revealing the role of vernacular translation in the spread of Islam to Bengal The Nabivamsa retells the life of the Prophet Muhammad for the first time to Bengalis in their mother tongue In this book Ayesha Irani delineates the challenges Saiyad Sultan faced in articulating the pre eminence of Islam in a land where multiple religious affiliations were common This text critical study lays bare the sophisticated strategies of translation used by a prominent early modern Muslim Bengali intellectual to invite others to his faith A Cultural History of Translation in the Age of Cross-cultural Interaction Marie-Alice Belle, Michelle Bolduc, 2025 Translation, Adaptation and Digital Media John Milton, Silvia Cobelo, 2023-05-31 Adaptation has always been central to Translation Studies and as print media becomes less and less dominant and new media become central to communication Adaptation is more than ever a vital area of Translation and Translation Studies In addition links to new digital media are examined This is the only user friendly textbook covering the full area of Translation Adaptation and Digital Media applicable to any language combination Divided into nine chapters it includes a wide range of texts from Brazilian culture ensuring an ex centric view of translation Each chapter contains an expository section case studies and student activities to support learning It emphasises the central role of Adaptation in the translation of works for the popular book market for theatre cinema radio and especially the new media This is the essential textbook for students in Translation and Adaptation Studies courses and instructors and professionals working on adaptation and transmedia projects The Muhammad Avat=ara Ayesha A. Irani, 2020-12-11 In The Muhammad Avatara Ayesha Irani offers an examination of the Nabivamsa the first epic work on the Prophet Muhammad written in Bangla This little studied seventeenth century text written by Saiyad Sultan is a literary milestone in the multi ethnic multi cultural history of Islam and marks a significant contribution not only to Bangla s rich literary corpus but also to our understanding of Islam s localization in Indic culture in the early modern period That Sufis such as Saiyad Sultan played a central role in Islam's spread in Bengal has been demonstrated primarily through examination of medieval Persian literary ethnographic and historical sources as well as colonial era data. Islamic Bangla texts themselves which emerged from the sixteenth century remain scarcely studied outside the Bangladeshi academy and almost entirely untranslated. Yet these premodern works which articulate Islamic ideas in a regional language represent a literary watershed and underscore the efforts of rebel writers across South Asia many of whom were Sufis to defy the linguistic cordon of the Muslim elite and the hegemony of Arabic and Persian as languages of Islamic discourse. Irani explores how an Arabian prophet and his religion came to inhabit the seventeenth century Bengali landscape and the role that pir authors such as Saiyad Sultan played in the rooting of Islam in Bengal's easternmost regions. This text critical study lays bare the sophisticated strategies of translation used by a prominent early modern Muslim Bengali intellectual to invite others to his faith.
