J. W. Graham,2015-07-12 Excerpt from Ten Fundamental Doctrines Believing that a fresh discussion of certain doctrines in The Christian Index would both do good and be appreciated the editor conceived the idea of publishing a Doctrinal Number Accordingly he planned for ten articles on so many fundamental doctrines and selected an equal number of men to prepare them Fortunately every man complied with his request and wrote on the subject assigned him The issue was published and a thousand extra copies were printed It would have required several additional thousand copies to have supplied the demand Before the publication of the Doctrinal Number the subjects and the names of the men to discuss them were announced This resulted in the suggestion that the articles be published in book form Of course when the authors prepared the articles they had no thought that they would be published in permanent form In justice to them their permission was sought and secured to make such use of them Their publication in book form was conditioned upon advance orders Such orders have been sufficiently large to authorize the publication of the book Election and The Lord s Supper are discussed more fully than any of the other subjects About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
