Interstitial Law-Making in Public International Law: A Study of Environmental Impact Assessments Viviane Meunier-Rubel, 2022-09-12 Environmental Impact Assessment EIA requirements are quasi universal. Praised as the core of the international legal response to ensure environmental protection, this procedure is an information tool for better public decision making which can contribute to empowering individuals and civic groups. Based on the historical background of the relevant norms and on case studies, Interstitial Law Making in International Law: A Study of Environmental Impact Assessments verifies whether the role of procedure in secreting substantive law may be fulfilled in the distinctive legal system of public international law while appraising how EIA requirements have been conceived and implemented as regards encouraging all international actors to behave in an environmentally conscious way in a world of heterogeneous political regimes. This book is based on the author's award winning doctoral dissertation which received the Yale Law School's Ambrose Gherini Prize for best paper in the field of international law 2018. The African Charter on Human and Peoples' Rights Rachel Murray, 2019-02-14 The African Charter on Human and Peoples' Rights (ACHPR) is the principle regional human rights treaty for the African continent. Adopted in 1981, there is now a significant body of jurisprudence and interpretation by its African Commission on Human and Peoples Rights and the recently established African Court. This volume provides a comprehensive article by article legal analysis of the provisions of the Charter as it draws upon the documents adopted by the African Commission including resolutions, case law and concluding observations. Where relevant case law adopted by the African Court on Human and Peoples Rights and that of other sub regional courts and tribunals and domestic courts in Africa are also incorporated. The book examines not only the substantive rights in the African Charter but also the work of the African Commission on Human and Peoples Rights and provides a full examination of its mandate. A critical analysis of each of the provisions of the ACHPR is led principally by the jurisprudence and documentation of the African Commission and African Court. The text also identifies the overall development of the ACHPR within the broader regional and international human rights legal arena.
