Cruise Management Alexis Papathanassis, Michael H. Breitner, Cornelia Schoen, 2011-11-03 Increasingly cruise operators are utilising information and communication technologies ICTs to improve service effectiveness and process efficiency both on and off board. Therefore it is worth initiating a discussion on the potential and challenges ICTs entail for both cruise operators back offices and for cruisers consumption experiences. This book documents the proceedings of the 1st e Cruising Conference Bremerhaven Germany which was aimed at discussing the possibilities and applicability of ICTs and mobile services in various aspects of cruise operations. Following a rigorous double blind review the best papers were chosen to be incorporated in this volume

International Handbook of Jewish Education Helena Miller, Lisa D. Grant, Alex Pomson, 2011-04-02 The International Handbook of Jewish Education a two volume publication brings together scholars and practitioners engaged in the field of Jewish Education and its cognate fields world wide. Their submissions make a significant contribution to our knowledge of the field of Jewish Education as we start the second decade of the 21st century. The Handbook is divided broadly into four main sections Vision and Practice focusing on issues of philosophy identity and planning the big issues of Jewish Education. Teaching and Learning focusing on areas of curriculum and engagement. Applications focusing on the ways that Jewish Education is transmitted in particular contexts both formal and informal for children and adults. Geographical focusing on historical demographic social and other issues that are specific to a region or where an issue or range of issues can be compared and contrasted between two or more locations. This comprehensive collection of articles providing high quality content constitutes a definitive statement on the state of Jewish Education world wide as well as through a wide variety of lenses and contexts. It is written in a style that is accessible to a global community of academics and professionals
