award category begins with a short headnote that traces the development of the award and discusses significant facts about it. The award categories are divided into sections for each year. Within the listing for a particular year are the nominees for the award, related credits, and the winner of the award. Shale begins with a short historical overview of the Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences. Part I lists Academy Award winners and nominees by award categories with sections devoted to annual awards, other awards, and discontinued categories. Part II is a chronological index of Academy Awards. Thus, full information for an award can be located through either the type of award or the year. Shale concludes with appendices of academy founders, presidents, and directors of best pictures, a selected annotated bibliography, and an index. The result is the most comprehensive record of the Academy Awards available.

Hartley, William Rudelius, 2007. MARKETING THE CORE 2 e by Kerin, Berkowitz, Hartley, and Rudelius continues the tradition of cutting edge content and student friendliness set by Marketing 8 e but in a shorter, more accessible package. The Core distills Marketing's 22 chapters down to 18, leaving instructors just the content they need to cover the essentials of marketing in a single semester. Instructors using The Core also benefit from a full-sized supplements package that surpasses anything offered by the competition, while students will appreciate the easy-to-read paperback format that's equally kind to both the eyes and the pocketbook. The Core is more than just a baby, Kerin. It combines great writing, currency, and supplements into the ideal package for budget-conscious students and time-conscious professors.
