A Wish Fulfilled Two James Qualls,G.A.Sarna,2026-04-21 What a sad lonely little life I have lived he thought Another New Year s Eve was ticking down and he had been in bed for three hours Just he and the cat There was always a cat God I have become my crazy aunt Peg He didn t know Peg but he had heard the stories Peg had a hundred cats She never met one she didn t take home and keep It wasn t true of course but that didn t stop the relatives from spreading gossip She hardly ever went to family functions She s a loner lives out there with her cats alone in that old home He thought that was probably a plus in the column of pluses and minuses for her He spent way too much time in the company of the people who gossiped He thought he would have liked crazy Aunt Peg He much preferred the company of his cat over them Still he knew something they didn t He had never been alone not since the summer of his eighth year Things changed that summer of 1966 He fell in love She was tiny and blonde with bright warm blue eyes He did not know how he knew this but he did He played alone to any who watched She never left his side in his mind She rambled and talked and he admired that about her It was not that he was shy He was contemplative His mind had this gift of instant analysis He could figure the angles and trajectories the weight and velocities of all that moved He counted the ticks between the seconds and listened to the innocence of her voice She had the cutest lilt as she told a story that excited her He didn t know how he knew this any more than he knew what she looked like But know he did She was kind sweet and gentle She had a smile in her eyes even through the tears She cried a lot he knew but most of it was from joy He admired that about her She was generous with her emotions He could not afford them He hardly ever cried He hardly ever smiled except with her That smile was for her She was the only one who ever saw it It hid in the corners of his mouth He felt it more than he saw it but it was there he knew Pensive That was the word his parents used Pensive little bastard Engaged in involving or reflecting deep or serious thought He had looked it up He looked up the word bastard too Born of parents not married to one another He did not put much thought into that He did not put much thought into them at all He could not see a connection to them at all if he was honest about it Perhaps they had stolen him he sometimes thought For what his parents lacked his grandparents made up for That and the little girl What if I was only meant to write for you That this is what it was always about What if my only purpose was to make you fall in love and find your heart again That the universe wanted the world to know your heart To be honest with you I m good with that I found everything I ever wanted in you
