McDonnell, 1985-09-04 A meditation a day from Thomas Merton This convenient day book is a compendium of inspiring passages from the writings of one of this century's spiritual giants It offers daily challenges for thoughtful meditation intended to stimulate provoke and lead to grace Here are some enduring thoughts found in these pages We cannot be happy if we expect to live all the time at the highest peak of intensity Happiness is not a matter of intensity but of balance and order and rhythm and harmony Every moment and every event of every man's life on earth plants something in his soul Nothing is more suspicious in a man who seems holy than an impatient desire to reform other men Pay as little attention as you can to the faults of other people and none at all to their natural defects and eccentricities The wise heart lives in Christ Wisdom manifests itself and yet is hidden The more it hides the more it is manifest and the more it is manifest the more it is hidden For God is known where he is apprehended as unknown and he is heard when we realize that we do not know the sound of his voice God utters me like a word containing a partial thought of himself Our full spiritual life is life in wisdom life in Christ The darkness of faith bears fruit in the light of wisdom Love cannot come of emptiness It is full of reality Thomas Merton, Peacemaker John

Dear, 2015 In the centenary year of Merton's birth longtime peace activist and author John Dear reflects on Merton's profound contributions to the practice and spirituality of peacemaking Beginning in the early 1960s the famous Trappist monk broke new ground through his prophetic writings on nuclear weapons war and racism For Merton these issues were not only moral challenges they reflected a deeper spiritual crisis afflicting the world Here John Dear invites us to take up Merton's journey and become mature spiritual seekers breaking beyond the norms of religious obligation into a universal compassion so that we too might become peacemakers the beloved children of the God of peace Publisher Spiritual

Thomas Moore, 1994 Sometimes in their chanting monks will land upon a note and sing it in florid fashion one syllable of text for fifty notes of chant Melisma they call it Living a melismatic life in imitation of plainchant we may stop on an experience a place a person or a memory and rhapsodize in imagination Some like to meditate or contemplate melismatically while others prefer to draw build paint or dance whatever their eye has fallen upon Living one point after another is one form of experience and it can be emphatically productive But stopping for melisma gives the soul its reason for being BOOK JACKET

DESCRIPTION A Way to God Matthew Fox, 2016-04-01 This unique reflection was prompted by an invitation Matthew Fox received to speak on the centennial of Thomas Merton's birth Fox says that much of the trouble he's gotten into such as being excommunicated in 1993 from the Dominican Order by Cardinal Ratzinger who later became Pope Benedict was because of Thomas Merton who sent Fox to Paris to complete a doctoral program in philosophy Fox found that Merton's journals poetry and religious writings revealed a deeply ecumenical philosophy and a contemplative life experience similar to that of Meister Eckhart the fourteenth century mystic theologian who inspired Fox's own creation spirituality It is little surprise to find Fox and Merton to be kindred spirits but the intersections Fox finds with Eckhart are intellectually profound spiritually enlightening and delightfully engaging     Contemplation and Compassion Anthony T.
