

School graduation speech

Let me begin by welcoming all of you to today's event and thanking (NAME OF PERSON WHO INTRODUCED YOU) for that kind introduction.

I'm very pleased to have been invited to speak here today on what I know is a very special day. It's special for the graduates, for their proud parents and grandparents, and for their very relieved teachers. Just wait until these students are graduating college. Then their parents will be the Relieved ones.

As I begin, I have to say, I think the best speeches are those that have a great beginning, a memorable end, and not much in between. I will try then to make a great speech. Today is one of those great occasions when we get to celebrate our young people - their

The Dragon Mother's Dream Gerhard Fischer,2018-10-01 This is the story of a journey to Southern California home of the American Dream in search of fame and fortune An Australian couple of mixed German Chinese origin with their six year old son Maximilian leave their settled life in Sydney to move to California The boy s Mandarin name is Xiaolong meaning Little Dragon and the dream of his mother is that he will one day become the number one golf player in the world She has contacted Tiger Woods first professional coach who is supposed to take the boy under his wings and she is determined to make her dream come true The book follows Maximilian s exposure to playing junior gold the highlights and pitfalls along with the emotional ups and downs of children involved in competitive sport and their parents sometimes conflicting and contradictory expectations culminating in an account of Maximilian competing at the Junior World Championship in San Diego But The Dragon Mother s Dream is more than a book about golf Part travelogue and part parenting memoir it is a journal about living in one of the most privileged places in California It documents the everyday realities and idiosyncracies of the contemporary American way of life recorded with great precision and attention to detail by an Australian writer of European roots and sometimes satirical often ironic sensibilities At the end of the book the mother s dream takes an unexpected twist

God, Schools, and Government Funding Laurence H. Winer,Nina J. Crimm,2016-04-15 In recent years a conservative majority of the U S Supreme Court over vigorous dissents has developed circumventions to the Establishment Clause of the First Amendment that allow state legislatures unabashedly to use public tax dollars increasingly to aid private elementary and secondary education This expansive and innovative legislation provides considerable governmental funds to support parochial schools and other religiously affiliated education providers That political response to the perceived declining quality of traditional public schools and the vigorous school choice movement for alternative educational opportunities provokes passionate constitutional controversy Yet the Court s recent decision in Arizona Christian School Tuition Organization v Winn inappropriately denies taxpayers recourse to challenge these proliferating tax funding schemes in federal courts Professors Winer and Crimm clearly elucidate the complex and controversial policy legal and constitutional issues involved in using tax expenditures mechanisms such as exclusions deductions and credits that economically function as government subsidies to finance private religious schooling The authors argue that legislatures must take great care in structuring such programs and set forth various proposals to ameliorate the highly troubling dissention and divisiveness generated by state aid for religious education
