Regulating the Metaverse Ignas Kalpokas, Julija Kalpokienė, 2023-01-26 The metaverse seems to be on everybody's lips and yet very few people can actually explain what it means or why it is important This book aims to fill the gap from an interdisciplinary perspective informed by law and media and communications studies Going beyond the optimism emanating from technology companies and venture capitalists the authors critically evaluate the antecedents and the building blocks of the metaverse the design and regulatory challenges that need to be solved and commercial opportunities that are yet to be fully realised While the metaverse is poised to open new possibilities and perspectives it will also be a dangerous place one ripe with threats ranging from disinformation to intellectual property theft to sexual harassment Hence the book offers a useful guide to the legal and political governance issues ahead while also contextualising them within the broader domain of governance and regulation of digital technologies

New Forms of Civic Resistance and Activism Tine Munk, Elliot Doornbos, Ian Mahoney, 2025-12-16 This interdisciplinary collection examines how contemporary movements are reshaping political social and environmental landscapes through both online and offline means including creative expression and grassroots mobilisation This book analyses non violent activism political resistance mobilisation responses to hate and environmental activism It brings together a wide range of academic perspectives with contributions from scholars and practitioners across the social sciences and humanities political science the natural sciences and environmental studies By examining the synergy between online and offline actions it highlights how these actions are interconnected with online platforms and virtual spaces and in doing so it addresses the urgent need for compelling and legitimate civic resistance strategies in the modern world It explores the intersection of digital platforms and real world action providing fresh insights into how activism is increasingly transcending geographical technological and conceptual boundaries New Forms of Civic Resistance and Activism will appeal to scholars and students of criminology social and political science environmental studies media and communication studies cybercrime and cyber security It will also interest activists policymakers practitioners and general readers who are curious about contemporary social movements This book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license

Conversing in the Metaverse Jieun Kiaer, 2024-07-25 How do metaverse technologies change how we communicate with each other This book explores how existing metaverse technologies affect our communication both verbal and non verbal as well as the ramifications of these effects

Communication is central to the human experience and how we currently communicate and will communicate can affect our sense of identity and relationships with others which can have huge long term societal repercussions Utilising methods of digital ethnography and linguistic landscape this book takes an in depth look at what exactly the metaverse is or will be and tracks the technological and societal trends that surround it To do so it questions what differentiates the metaverse from earlier connected virtual worlds like World of Warcraft or Second Life and features extracts from interviews with the users and developers of current metaverses such as Roblox Minecraft and Gather town It also investigates the impact of the pandemic in changing and accelerating how we communicate in virtual spaces
