With her best friend living hundreds of kilometres away and an ex who refuses to pick up the phone she doesn't know who to turn to for help. There's definitely no point asking her midwife James because he's the worst. Sure he held her hand through the birth but that's only because it was his job. However as Poppy and James keep crossing paths in the small country town Poppy begins to realise she may have misjudged her midwife. And that complicates things. As Poppy stumbles from crisis to crisis in a town that feels unrecognisable she learns that to build a future sometimes you need to let go of the past. And often the strongest relationships are those you forge when you're at rock bottom. Leesa's writing is an exciting breath of fresh air. Her voice is witty, clever and captures even the most mundane aspects of motherhood with incredible heart and humility. Leesa's ability to convey the vulnerabilities and insecurities we feel as mothers in the first year of a child's life really reinforced the beauty of the journey despite its nuanced challenges. Special Delivery had me swooning, sobbing and smiling from start to finish. I enjoyed every step along the voyage feeling like I'd found a kindred spirit in Poppy and the colourful cast of characters who walk this year with her. Brava Leesa! Jenna Lo Bianco author of The Italian Marriage. Special Delivery is a hysterical and heartwarming romcom that delivers sizzling chemistry, unforgettable characters and irresistible charm in one precious package.
