Maximum Security Anonymous, 1997 A brilliant excursion into the decadence of contemporary culture. Sunday Times Eric Packer is a twenty eight year old multi billionnaire asset manager. We join him on what will become a particularly eventful April day in turn of the twenty first century Manhattan. He's on a personal odyssey to get a haircut. Sitting in his stretch limousine as it moves across town he finds the city at a virtual standstill because the President is visiting a rapper's funeral is proceeding and a violent protest is being staged in Times Square by anti globalist groups. Most worryingly Eric's bodyguards are concerned that he may be a target. An electrifying study in affectlessness infused with deep cynicism and measured detachment, a harsh indictment of the life denying tendencies of capitalism as brutal a dissection of the American dream as Wolfe's Bonfire or Ellis's Psycho Cosmopolis is a caustic prophecy all too quickly realized. A prose poem about New York DeLillo has always been good at telling us where we're heading we ignore him at our peril. Blake Morrison Guardian
