Nice Gehry Sydney Chau Chak Building:

Gehry in Sydney The Images Publishing Group, 2015-10-28 Frank O Gehry one of the most influential architects of his generation is famous for many iconic buildings Works to date include the Dancing Building Prague Czech Republic 1996 the Guggenheim Museum Bilbao Spain 1997 and in the United States the Weatherhead School of Management Ohio 2002 the Walt Disney Concert Hall Los Angeles 2003 and the Peter B Lewis Library at Princeton University 2008 The distinctive nature of Gehry's design for his first building in Australia the Dr Chau Chak Wing Building at the University of Technology Sydney is showcased in this richly illustrated monograph The design is unlike anything Gehry has previously constructed In creating the building skin Gehry designed an undulating and corbelled brick veneer for the eastern facade facing the city which was laid entirely by hand while for the western facade he created a chevron pattern in large sheets of glass The book provides a fresh analysis of Gehry's working process and offers insightful perspectives on the context negotiation commission design and construction of the building It is illuminated by many of the Gehry Partners models for the building and rich photographic essays as well as the architect's unique sketches

University Trends Jonathan Coulson, Paul

Roberts, Isabelle Taylor, 2014-09-15 A university campus is a place with special resonance conjuring images of cloistered quadrangles and wood panelled libraries often echoing centuries of scholarly tradition And yet it is also a place of cutting edge science interactive learning youth vibrancy and energy It is this dual nature which makes the physical environment of a university so dynamic as well as a highly challenging landscape to design and manage successfully Today the scale of the pressures and the rate of change facing higher education institutions are greater than ever Squeezed public spending rising tuition fees and the growing education ambitions of developing nations are set against a backdrop of rapid technological progress and changing pedagogies What are the repercussions for the physical realities of university planning and architecture And how are university campuses adapting to contend with these pressures University Trends introduces the most significant widespread and thought provoking trends in campus design today Part 1 identifies current trends such as starchitecture large scale campus extensions adaptive re use and international branch campuses Part 2 profiles each trend via highly illustrated global case studies of well publicised as well as lesser known projects The essential guide to current and future trends in campus design

Narrative Architecture Sylvain De Bleeckere, Sebastiaan Gerards, 2017-02-24

Narrative Architecture explores the postmodern concept of narrative architecture from four perspectives thinking imagining educating and designing to give you an original view on our postmodern era and architectural culture Authors Sylvain De Bleeckere and Sebastiaan Gerards outline the ideas of thinkers such as Edmund Husserl Paul Ricoeur Emmanuel Levinas and Peter Sloterdijk and explore important work of famous architects such as Daniel Libeskind and Frank Gehry as well as rather underestimated architects like Gnter Behnisch and Sep Ruf With more than 100 black and white images this book will help you to adopt the design method in your own work

Global Perspectives on Critical Architecture Gevork

Hartoonian,2016-03-03 Judging from the debates taking place in both education and practice it appears that architecture is deeply in crisis New design and production techniques together with the globalization of capital and even skilled labour have reduced architecture to a commodified object its aesthetic qualities tapping into the current pervasive desire for the spectacular These developments have changed the architect s role in the design and production processes of architecture Moreover critical architectural theories including those of Breton Heidegger and Benjamin which explored the concepts of technology modernism labour and capital and how technology informed the cultural along with later theories from the 1960s which focused more on the architect s theorization of his her own design strategies seem increasingly irrelevant In an age of digital reproduction and commodification these theoretical approaches need to be reassessed Bringing together essays and interviews from leading scholars such as Kenneth Frampton Peggy Deamer Bernard Tschumi Donald Kunze and Marco Biraghi this volume investigates and critically addresses various dimensions of the present crisis of architecture It poses questions such as Is architecture a conservative cultural product servicing a given producer consumer system Should architecture s affiliative ties with capitalism be subjected to a measure of criticism that can be expanded to the entirety of the cultural realm Is architecture s infusion into the cultural the reason for the visibility of architecture today What room does the city leave for architecture beyond the present delirium of spectacle Should the thematic of various New Left criticisms of capitalism be taken as the premise of architectural criticism Or alternatively putting the notion of criticality aside is it enough to confine criticism to the production of insightful and pleasurable texts DK Sydney DK
