will find this essential reading Palliative Nursing Elaine Stevens, Susan Jackson, Stuart Milligan, 2009-11-16 Palliative Nursing is an evidence based practical guide for nurses working in areas of practice where general palliative care is provided. This may be in hospitals, nursing homes, dementia units, the community and any other clinical areas which are not classified as specialist palliative care. This book first explores the history and ethos of palliative care and then looks at palliative nursing across various care settings. It then looks at palliative nursing care for people with specific illnesses including heart failure, dementia, chronic obstructive pulmonary disease, cancer and neurological conditions. Palliative care for children and young people is discussed and then the book finally looks at education and research in palliative nursing. Palliative Nursing will be essential reading for all nurses working with palliative care patients in a non-specialist role i.e. in hospitals, primary care and nursing homes as well as nursing students. SPECIAL FEATURES Explores the palliative nursing issues related to specific diseases, groups. Written in the context of the new national tools i.e. the end of life initiative, preferred place of care, Liverpool care pathway and Gold standards framework. Each chapter includes practice points and cases to allow the practitioner to undertake guided reflection to improve practice. Written by nurses for nurses. Provides guidance for nurses working in all four countries of the UK. Fundamental Aspects of Palliative Care Nursing Robert Becker, Richard Gamlin, 2004 Palliative Care Nursing: Caring for Suffering Patients Kathleen Quimet Perrin, Caryn A. Sheehan, Mertie L. Potter, Mary K. Kazanowski, 2022-02-08 Preceded by Palliative care nursing Kathleen Quimet Perrin et al c2012

Community Palliative Care Sandra Aitken, 2009-04-13 Community Palliative Care examines the complex support and information needs of seriously ill patients and their families and will encompass not only the patient's journey but that of the family during the illness trajectory and into the bereavement period. The text is divided into three sections: professionals, patients and carers. The first section discusses the roles and contributions made by other members of the primary health care team and examines the role of the nurse. Section two explores the psychosocial support needed by patients receiving palliative care and looks at the community palliative care clinical nurse specialist's role in relation to psychological as well as practical problems surrounding a life threatening illness. The final section will look at the needs of the family and carers and the support that the community palliative care clinical nurse specialist can offer to the individuals. Included in this segment will be the complex issues faced by carers in relation to the changing roles within the family, children, death and bereavement.

Palliative Care Nursing of Children and Young People Rita Pfund, 2007 Challenges the reader to critically analyze their own practices and beliefs within an evidence based framework. This book captures the evidence base and many developments and applies them to the care of infants, children and young people living with life limiting illness and their families.

Stepping Into Palliative Care 1 Jo Cooper, 2006 Aimed at those working in community care including doctors, nurses, nursing students and social workers, this book covers the value of teamwork, stress issues in palliative care, communication, ethical dilemmas, transcultural and ethnic issues at the end of life and sexuality in palliative care.

Palliative Care Nursing Marianne Matzo, Marianne L. Matzo, Deborah Witt Sherman, 2018-06-28 This 5th edition is an important achievement it is a symbol of commitment to the field of palliative nursing where we have been and where we are going Betty Rolling Ferrell PhD MA FAAN FPCN CHPN From the Foreword The aging population has only grown since the first edition of this comprehensive and seminal publication nearly 20 years ago Based on the need to humanize rather than medicalize the illness experience for patients this text delves into palliative care beyond the specific diseases affecting the patient Instead content focuses on the whole person and family Palliative patients struggle with chronic debilitating and painful conditions and grapple with the fact that life as they knew it has already passed away Families and friends reciprocally suffer not knowing how to help and therefore become the secondary victims of the disease This is not the challenge of a lone nurse or a single physician therapist or social worker Rather palliative and hospice care requires the expertise and unique roles of an interprofessional team to help the patient and family strengthen their resilience continue to find meaning and purpose in life and cure what can be cured Palliative Care Nursing Fifth Edition delivers advanced empirical aesthetic ethical and personal knowledge This new edition brings an increased focus on outcomes benchmarking progress and goals of care It expounds upon the importance of the cross disciplinary collaboration introduced in the previous edition Every chapter in Sections I II and III includes content written by a non nursing member of the interprofessional team Based on best evidence and clinical practice guidelines this text presents comprehensive targeted interventions responsive to the needs of palliative and hospice patients and family Each chapter contains compassionate timely appropriate and cost effective care for diverse populations across the illness trajectory Key Features The expanded new edition offers current comprehensive one stop source of highly relevant clinical information on palliative care Life span approach age appropriate nursing considerations e g geriatric pediatric and family Includes disease specific and symptom specific nursing management chapters Promotes a holistic and interdisciplinary approach to palliative care Offers important legal ethical and cultural considerations related to death and dying Case Studies with Case Study Conclusion in each clinical chapter New to The Fifth Edition An expanded chapter on Palliative Care incorporates most up to date scope and standards information on Basic and Advanced HPNA certification self reflection and self care for nurses A chapter on Interprofessional Collaboration Instructor Resources Power points and Test bank
