Onward To Manhood Establishing Godly Masculinity:

Onward to Manhood Eric J. Elliott, 2015-03-19 What we face What we fear What we fight What we find fascinating All of these What we s determine the scope of our manhood In this read Jesus jolts us into superlative manhood with His divine growth MANageMENT program Onward to Manhood spurs the reader to uncommon feats by encouraging them to launch patterns of dependability unlock boundless creativity and unleash relentless productivity BUNCHES Brothers Uncles Nephews Cousins Husbands and especially Sons will profit from this project for generations to come International Guide to Literature on Masculinity Diederik F. Janssen, 2008 International in scope this guide lists references by world region selected nations selected American ethnic minorities and Christianity and Judaism Specific ethnic minorities covered include American Indians African Americans and Asian Americans Elite White Men Ruling Joe R. Feagin, Kimberley Ducey, 2017-04-07 This book examines the who what when where and how of elite white male dominance in U S and global society In spite of their domination in the United States and globally that we document herein elite white men have seldom been called out and analyzed as such They have received little to no explicit attention with regard to systemic racism issues as well as associated classism and sexism issues Almost all public and scholarly discussions of U S racism fail to explicitly foreground elite white men or to focus specifically on how their interlocking racial class and gender statuses affect their globally powerful decisionmaking Some of the power positions of these elite white men might seem obvious but they are rarely analyzed for their extraordinary significance While the principal focus of this book is on neglected research and policy questions about the elite white male role and dominance in the system of racial oppression in the United States and globally because of their positioning at the top of several societal hierarchies the authors periodically address their role and dominance in other oppressive e g class gender hierarchies Imagining Iberia in English and Castilian Medieval Romance Emily Houlik-Ritchey, 2023-02-06 Imagining Iberia in English and Castilian Medieval Romance offers a broad disciplinary linguistic and national focus by analyzing the literary depiction of Iberia in two European vernaculars that have rarely been studied together Emily Houlik Ritchey employs an innovative comparative methodology that integrates the understudied Castilian literary tradition with English literature Intentionally departing from the standard influence and transmission approach Imagining Iberia challenges that standard discourse with modes drawn from Neighbor Theory to reveal and navigate the relationships among three selected medieval romance traditions This welcome volume uncovers an overemphasis in prior scholarship on the relevance of crusading agendas in medieval romance and highlights the shared investments of Christians and Muslims in Iberia s political creedal cultural and mercantile networks in the Mediterranean world Borrowed Gods and Foreign Bodies Eric Reinders, 2004-11-15 To the Victorians the Chinese were invariably inscrutable The meaning and provenance of this impression and most importantly its workings in nineteenth century Protestant missionary encounters with Chinese religion are at the center of Eric Reinders s Borrowed Gods and Foreign

Bodies an enlightening look at how missionaries religious identity experience and physical foreignness produced certain representations of China between 1807 and 1937 Reinders first introduces the imaginative world of Victorian missionaries and outlines their application of mind body dualism to the dualism of self and other He then explores Western views of the Chinese language especially ritual language and Chinese ritual particularly the kow tow His work offers surprising and valuable insight into the visceral nature of the Victorian response to the Chinese and more generally into the nineteenth century Western representation of China

Goodbye Christ? Peter Kerry Powers, 2024-01-12 Despite the proliferation of criticism on the cultural work of the Harlem Renaissance over the course of the past two decades surprisingly few critics have focused on the ways in which religious contexts shaped the works of New Negro writers and artists during that time In Goodbye Christ Christianity Masculinity and the New Negro Renaissance Peter Kerry Powers fills this scholarly void exploring how the intersection of race religion and gender during the Harlem Renaissance impacted the rhetoric and imagination of prominent African American writers of the early twentieth century In order to best understand the secular academic thought that arose during the Harlem Renaissance period Powers argues readers must first understand the religious contexts from which it grew By illustrating how religion informed the New Negro movement and through his analysis of a range of texts Powers delineates the ways in which New Negro writers of the early twentieth century sought to loosen the grip of Christianity on the racial imagination thereby clearing a space for their own cultural work and for the development of a secular African American intelligentsia generally In addition to his examination of well known authors including W E B Du Bois Langston Hughes and Zora Neale Hurston Powers also offers an illuminating perspective on lesser known figures including Reverdy Ransom and Frederick Cullen In his exploration of the role of race and religion at the time Powers employs an intersectional approach to religion and gender and especially masculinity that sets the discussion on fertile new ground Goodbye Christ answers the call for a body of work that considers religion as a relevant precursor to the secular intelligentsia that grew during the Harlem Renaissance in the early 1900s By offering a complete look at the tensions that arose between churches and Harlem Renaissance writers and artists readers can gain a better understanding of the work that Harlem Renaissance writers undertook during the early decades of the twentieth century Peter Kerry Powers is dean of the School of Humanities at Messiah College in Pennsylvania He is the author of Recalling Religions Resistance Memory and Cultural Revision in Ethnic Women s Literature

Fight Sports and the Church Richard Wolff, 2021-02-26 Fighting sports may seem at odds with Christian tradition yet modern ministries have embraced them as a means for evangelism and social outreach While news media often sensationalize fighting sports churches see them as a way to appeal to male congregants presenting a peace loving yet tough model of discipleship From martial arts programs at suburban churches to urban boxing ministries geared towards at risk youth this book examines the substantial history of church sponsored training in combat sports and presents arguments by Christian ethicists about their compatibility with church teachings and settings Interviews with boxing and martial arts ministry leaders describe their programs and the relationship between fight sports and faith The Christian Witness, and Church Member's Magazine, 1857 The Palgrave Handbook of Masculinity and Political Culture in Europe Christopher Fletcher, Sean Brady, Rachel E. Moss, Lucy Riall, 2018-02-02 This handbook aims to challenge gender blindness in the historical study of high politics power authority and government by bringing together a group of scholars at the forefront of current historical research into the relationship between masculinity and political power Until very recently in historical terms formal political authority in Europe was normally and ideally held by adult males with female power being perceived as a recurrent aberration Yet paradoxically the study of the interactions between masculinity and political culture is still very much in its infancy This volume seeks to remedy this lacuna by considering the different consequences of the masculinity of power over two millennia of European history It examines how masculinity and political culture have interacted from ancient Rome and the early medieval Byzantine empire to twentieth century Germany and Italy It considers a broad variety of case studies from early medieval Iceland and late medieval France to Naples at the time of the French Revolution and Strasbourg after the Franco Prussian War with a particular focus on the development of political masculinities in Great Britain between the sixteenth century and the present day It's Good to be a Man Michael Foster, Dominic Bnonn Tennant, 2021 Men were made to rule They always have and always will Nothing can change that Nothing will It is not a question of whether men will be ruling but which ones and how Our modern society has called for us to smash the patriarchy and the church has not done much better Instead of telling men how they can hone and refine their aggressive traits the church has told men that they should aspire to be meek servant leaders and when a man shows any signs of independence he is shown to the door This leaves most young men lost They don't know what to do or how to improve so they watch Jordan Peterson videos on YouTube to learn how to grow in their masculinity and sense of mission In this book Michael Foster and Bnonn Tennant seek to remind men that their natural aggressive instincts are gifts from God that are meant to be used for the kingdom Men are supposed to found households join brotherhoods and work towards a mission This book offers men a quick guide to where they are and how they can get better God made men to be strong and aggressive risk takers This is a feature not a bug Foster and Tennant remind us that It is Good to Be a Man The Religion of Modern Manhood Norman Egbert Richardson, 1911 Be a Man! Peter N. Stearns, 1990 The Christian Union Henry Ward Beecher, 1873 Changing Male Roles in Today's World Richard P. Olson, 1982 Feminist Studies, 2003 The Medical Times and Gazette, 1875 Encounter, 1993 The Index ... Francis Ellington Abbot, William James Potter, Benjamin Franklin Underwood, 1874 Frank Leslie's Chimney Corner, 1872 Association Men, 1920
