Reading Autobiography Sidonie Smith, Julia Watson, 2010 projects and an extensive bibliography

Book Jacket The Dynamics of Text and Framing Phenomena Matti Peikola, Birte Bös, 2020-11-15 This volume explores the complex relations of texts and their contextualising elements drawing particularly on the notions of paratext metadiscourse and framing It aims at developing a more comprehensive historical understanding of these phenomena covering a wide time span from Old English to the 20th century in a range of historical genres and contexts of text production mediation and consumption However more fundamentally it also seeks to expand our conception of text and the communicative spaces surrounding them and probe the explanatory potential of the concepts under investigation Though essentially rooted in historical linguistics and philology the twelve contributions of this volume are also open to insights from other disciplines such as medieval manuscript studies and bibliography but also information studies marketing studies and even digital electronics and thus tackle opportunities and challenges in researching the dynamics of text and framing phenomena in a historical perspective

Rodney Graham Rodney Graham, Grant Arnold, Jessica Bradley, Cornelia H. Butler, Art Gallery of Ontario, Museum of Contemporary Art (Los Angeles, Calif.), Vancouver Art Gallery, 2004 This book is dedicated to the memory of Professor Azizur Rahman Chowdhury The book discusses some notable debates in the arena of international trade law and globalisation It looks at the basic structure of the WTO its function and decision making and explores key economic and legal concepts underpinning the WTO including Most Favoured Nation Treatment and National Treatment The need of the hour is to discuss tariff barriers and non tariff barriers as they assist in promoting economic development Besides these the WTO attempts to control illegal trade practices including dumping and subsidies which are also pertinent topics in the current climate The book examines many of these issues through exploring the jurisprudence and regulatory framework of WTO It examines the existing WTO jurisprudence to reconcile trade liberalisation with other societal values and interests Furthermore it highlights the regulation of international trade in agricultural products Overall this book shows that international trade law of the WTO is not a self contained discipline but has clear connections with other social economic and environmental subjects The WTO interacts with these issues and thus the book discusses clarifies and identifies its relationship with human rights intellectual property rights and the environment It discusses the following topics in single chapters Trade Globalisation and Economic Policy WTO and Environment WTO and Human Rights WTO and Regulation of International Trade in Agricultural Products WTO and Developing Countries The book provides a unique interdisciplinary and refreshing approach to the study of international trade law and the WTO

Literary History Anders Pettersson, Gunilla

Lindberg-Wada, Margareta Petersson, Stefan Helgesson, 2006 Literary History Towards a Global Perspective is a research project funded by the Swedish Research Council Vetenskapsr det Initiated in 1996 and launched in 1999 it aims at finding suitable methods and approaches for studying and analysing literature globally emphasizing the comparative and intercultural aspect Even though we nowadays have fast and easy access to any kind of information on literature and literary history we encounter more than ever the difficulty of finding a credible overall perspective on world literary history Until today literary cultures and traditions have usually been studied separately each field using its own principles and methods Even the conceptual basis itself varies from section to section and the genre concepts employed are not mutually compatible As a consequence it is very difficult if not impossible for the interested layperson as well as for the professional student to gain a clear and fair perspective both on the literary traditions of other peoples and on one's own traditions The project can be considered as a contribution to gradually removing this problem and helping to gain a better understanding of literature and literary history by means of a concerted empirical research and deeper conceptual reflection The contributions to the four volumes are written in English by specialists from a large number of disciplines primarily from the fields of comparative literature Oriental studies and African studies in Sweden All of the literary texts discussed in the articles are in the original language Each one of the four volumes is devoted to a special research topic

Yearbook of Comparative and General Literature, 1997 New Media Poetics Adalaide Kirby Morris, Thomas Swiss, 2006 The first collection of writings on poetry that is composed disseminated and read on computers essays and artist statements explore visually arresting aurally charged and dynamic works that are created by a synergy of human beings and intelligent machines

The Poetry of Anna Akhmatova Alexandra Harrington, 2006 This book outlines a fresh and coherent framework for the apprehension of Akhmatova's oeuvre in its totality seeing her as a poet who moves beyond modernism in her later period The appeal to postmodernism which is in itself innovatory with regard to Akhmatova studies also allows exploration of a second problematic issue how to account for the shift in self presentation in the later verse and the different concept of poetic self which it advances This new account of Akhmatova's path to maturity challenges the conventional view of the early Akhmatova as poet in the classical Russian tradition and of the later Akhmatova as paradigmatically modernist

Tendencies in literature, culture and language Andrzej Weseliński, Jerzy Wełna, 2005 Twentieth-century European Cultural Theorists Paul Hansom, 2001 Presents biographies of the men and women who wrestled with the complex theoretical problems of twentieth century culture Many of the theorists treated in this volume are concerned with the effects of mass culture technology and consumerism

The Shakespeare Multiverse Valerie M. Fazel,Louise Geddes,2021-11-29 The Shakespeare Multiverse Fandom as Literary Praxis argues that fandom offers new models for a twenty first century reading practice that embraces affective pleasure and subjective self positioning as a means of understanding a text Part critical study part source book The Shakespeare Multiverse suggests that fannish contributions to the ongoing expansion of the object that we call Shakespeare is best imagined as a multiverse encompassing different worlds that consolidate the various perspectives that different fans bring to Shakespeare Our concept of the multiverse redefines Shakespeare not as a singular body of work but as space where a process of inquiry and cultural memory memories in the making and those already made is influenced and shaped by the technologies available to the reader Characteristic of fandom is an intertextual reading strategy that we term cyborg reading an approach that accommodates the varied elements of identity politics culture sexuality and race that shape the ways that Shakespeare is explored and appropriated throughout fannish reading communities The Shakespeare Multiverse intersects literary theory fan studies and popular culture as it traverses Shakespeare fandom from the 1623 Folio to the age of the Internet exploring the different textures of fan affect from those who firmly uphold fidelity to the text to those who sit on the very edge of the fandom threatening to cross over into Shakespearean anti fandom By recognizing the literary value of fandom The Shakespeare Multiverse offers a new approach to literary criticism that challenges the limits of hegemonic authority and recognizes the value of a joyfully speculative critical praxis
