Parting Ways New Rituals And Celebrations Of Lives Passing:

Parting Ways Denise Carson, 2011-04-10 Parting Ways explores the emergence of new end of life rituals in America that celebrate the dying and reinvent the roles of family and community at the deathbed Denise Carson contrasts her father's passing in the 1980s governed by the structures of institutionalized death with her mother's death some two decades later Carson's moving account of her mother's dying at home vividly portrays a ceremonial farewell known as a living wake showing how it closed the gap between social and biological death while opening the door for family and friends to reminisce with her mother Carson also investigates a variety of solutions living funerals oral ethical wills and home funerals that revise the impending death scenario Integrating the profoundly personal with the objectively historical Parting Ways calls for an end of life revolution to change the way of death in America

Understanding End of Life Practices: Perspectives on Communication, Religion and Culture Chandana Banerjee, 2023-10-18 This book is an exploration of issues that are essential in end of life care Understanding end of life practices across cultures and religions is important in the delivery of patient centered end of life care This book helps clinicians and non clinicians understand the various end of life practices in their vast patient populations further contributing to providing empathetic and compassionate end of life care to patients With the advent of many new options at the end of life this book also explores the modern day approaches to end of life often sought by patients when faced with disease progression and adversity

Death, Society, and Human Experience Robert Kastenbaum, Christopher M. Moreman, 2024-03-28 The 13th edition of Death Society and Human Experience provides a panoramic overview of the ways that we are touched by death and dying both as individuals and as members of society A landmark text in the field the authors draw on contributions from the social and behavioral sciences as well as the humanities including perspectives offered through history philosophy religion literature and the arts to provide thorough coverage and understanding of topics associated with the end of life and death and dying By approaching the subject from multiple angles the authors explain the various ways that individual cultural and societal attitudes influence both how and when we die and how we live and deal with the knowledge of death and loss Originally written by Robert Kastenbaum a renowned scholar who developed one of the world's first death education courses Christopher M Moreman who has worked in the field of death studies for two decades has updated this edition In addition to infusing his close areas of focus both in afterlife beliefs and experiences and how these might affect how people live their lives he's weaved in new coverage of current affairs including The impact of COVID 19 on experiences of death bereavement mourning and more Expanded legalization of physician assisted dying in the United States and several countries Changes in bereavement rituals and traditions stemming from technology use and social media With additional content and classroom extensions available online Death Society and Human Experience remains a thoughtful exploratory and impressively comprehensive overview for undergraduate and graduate courses in death dying and bereavement

Milestone Celebrations in the Age of Social Media Carly Gieseler, 2022-09-29 In the decade spanning 2010-2020 social media showcased growing celebrations of lifetime milestones across multiple platforms Utilizing theoretical and methodological approaches based in cultural studies Milestone Celebrations in the Age of Social Media analyzes social media phenomena including gender reveal parties promposals publicized marriage proposals divorce celebrations and the rites of the Death Positive Movement Carly Gieseler illustrates how the public sharing of major life events on social media platforms reshapes the way we communicate about topics including courtship birth marriage divorce and death While each trend represents a unique occasion these celebrations share themes inherent to our human experience in the digital age Culminating in the wake of the pandemic and its impact on each communal celebration this book illustrates one of our most vital human drives connection Understanding Death and Dying Frank E.
