Parapsychology Philosophy And Spirituality A Postmodern Exploration Constructive Postmodern Thought:

Parapsychology, Philosophy, and Spirituality David Ray Griffin, 1997-01-09 In this book David Ray Griffin best known for his work on the problem of evil turns his attention to the even more controversial topic of parapsychology Griffin examines why scientists philosophers and theologians have held parapsychology in disdain and argues that neither a priori philosophical attacks nor wholesale rejection of the evidence can withstand scrutiny After articulating a constructive postmodern philosophy that allows the parapsychological evidence to be taken seriously Griffin examines this evidence extensively He identifies four types of repeatable phenomena that suggest the reality of extrasensory perception and psychokinesis Then on the basis of a nondualistic distinction between mind and brain which makes the idea of life after death conceivable he examines five types of evidence for the reality of life after death messages from mediums apparitions cases of the possession type cases of the reincarnation type and out of body experiences His philosophical and empirical examinations of these phenomena suggest that they provide support for a postmodern spirituality that overcomes the thinness of modern religion without returning to supernaturalism

Spiritual Titanism Nicholas F. Gier, 2012-03-27 This work in comparative philosophy uses the concept of Titanism to critique certain trends in both Eastern and Western philosophy Titanism is an extreme form of humanism in which human beings take on divine attributes and prerogatives The author finds the most explicit forms of spiritual Titanism in the Jaina Samkhya and Yoga traditions where yogis claim powers and knowledge that in the West are only attributed to God These philosophies are also radically dualistic and liberation involves a complete transcendence of the body society and nature Five types of spiritual Titanism are identified and in addition to this typology a heuristic based on Nietzsche's three metamorphoses of camel lion and child is offered The book determines that answers to spiritual Titanism begin not only with the Hindu Goddess religion but also are found in Buddhism Confucianism and Daoism especially Zen Buddhism and Confucianism

Processing Reality John H. Buchanan, 2022-10-27 In this book John Buchanan takes us on a journey through the early death of a parent the ups and downs of addiction the extraordinary revelations of psychedelic experiences and the rewards of a sober and meaningful life Reflecting on these experiences the author identifies five pivotal events that drove him to seek a deeper understanding of the significance of extraordinary experiences the nature of mind and the universe the meaning of life and most generally to ask What is Reality Drawing on his wide ranging studies and explorations Buchanan discusses the ideas that most influenced his search and led him to conclude that transpersonal psychology and process philosophy especially as developed by Stanislav Grof and Alfred North Whitehead offer the most satisfying answers He presents in some detail the essence of Grof's and Whitehead's thought as it pertains to these basic questions about life and reality so that readers can appreciate these ideas for themselves Buchanan argues that taken together process thought and transpersonal theory offer the kind of enspirited worldview capable of providing both the necessary inspiration and the intellectual understanding for confronting the great challenges facing our world Religion and Scientific Naturalism David Ray Griffin, 2000-05-11 Winner of the 2000 Scientific and Medical Network Book Prize In this book David Ray Griffin argues that the perceived conflict between science and religion is based upon a double mistake the assumption that religion requires supernaturalism and that scientific naturalism requires atheism and materialism

Process and Difference Catherine Keller, Anne Daniell, 2012-02-01 The similarities and creative tensions between French based poststructuralism and Whiteheadian process thought are examined here by leading scholars Although both approaches are labeled postmodern their own proponents often take them to be so dissimilar as to be opposed Contributors to this book however argue that processing these differences of theory at a deeper level may cultivate fertile and innovative modes of reflection Through their comparisons contrasts and hybridizations of process and poststructuralist theories the contributors variously redefine concepts of divinity and cosmos advance the interaction between science and religion and engage the sex gender and religious ethics of otherness and subjectivity

The End of Modern Medicine Laurence Foss, 2002-01-01 Proposes a radically reconfigured medical model centered on mind body interaction

Journal of the Society for Psychical Research Society for Psychical Research (Great Britain), 2007

Subject Guide to Books in Print, 1993

A Vision for Hinduism Jeffery D. Long, 2007 This text argues that Hindu nationalism is not only destructive of communal relations but that it also prevents Hinduism from emerging as a world religion It presents a vision of Hinduism as a tradition capable of pointing the way towards a future in which all the religions manifest complementary visions of a larger reality

Radical Nature Christian De Quincey, 2002 Do animals have souls Do worms and insects feel pain or pleasure Can trees feel anything at all Ever wondered where in the great unfolding of evolution consciousness first appeared If questions like these intrigue you you are in good company because they touch on the deepest mystery in modern philosophy and science How are minds and bodies related How does consciousness fit into the physical world These are not just idle speculations How we answer such questions can dramatically affect the way we live our lives treat the natural world and other people and even how we relate to our own bodies In Radical Nature philosopher Christian de Quincey explores how mind and matter are related and he proposes a radical and surprising answer Consciousness goes all the way down Through animals plants even single cells in fact all the way down the great chain of being to molecules atoms and beyond Drawing on both ancient and modern knowledge de Quincey shows us that the universe teems with consciousness through and through Matter itself tingles with the spark of spirit he says And therefore nature in all its forms and glory is sacred to its deepest roots Radical Nature takes you on a mind stretching journey in this remarkable story of philosophy and science in search of a soul Back cover
