Economics of Education

Dominic J. Brewer,Patrick J. McEwan,2010-01-26 A collection of short stand alone chapters divided into five sections including overview of the field private and social returns to human capital investments production costs and financing of education teachers and teacher labor markets and education markets choice and incentives The collection provides international perspectives that describe the origins of these subjects their major issues and proponents their landmark studies and opportunities for future research The 70 contributors are each well regarded economists whose research has advanced the topic on which they write and this book fulfills an undersupplied niche for a text in the economics of education The chapters come from the acclaimed International Encyclopedia of Education 3e 2010 edited by Eva Baker Barry McGaw and Penelope Peterson The Encyclopedia contains over 1 350 articles in 24 sections that stretch from educational philosophies and technologies to measurement leadership and national systems of education This single volume textbook presents a cohesive view of this increasingly important area of economics. Superb contributions from well regarded economist convey unique and useful perspectives. Chapters contain an extensive bibliography and further readings to enable interested researchers to extend their knowledge into each specific topic.

Vouchers and the Provision of Public Services C. Eugene Steuerle, 2000-06 A Brookings Institution Press Committee for Economic Development and Urban Institute Press publication. For decades the use of vouchers has been widely debated. But often lost in the heat of debate is the fact that vouchers are just another tool in the government's tool chest a restricted subsidy that falls somewhere between the extremes of cash and direct government provision of services. The instrument itself is not new the 1944 GI Bill of Rights was a voucher and vouchers for food college aid and housing have been in place for decades. Until now however the study of vouchers has been restricted to a few controversial applications. This volume which grew out of a conference sponsored by the Brookings Institution the Urban Institute and the Committee for Economic Development fills the gap offering a framework for comparative analysis of specific policy issues related to vouchers. Its 16 essays address the economics politics and legal issues of voucher use and explore how vouchers are currently employed in the United States and abroad for education child care job training housing and health care. C. Eugene Steuerle is a senior fellow at the Urban Institute and has worked under four different U.S. presidents on a variety of reform issues in such areas as social security budget tax and health policy. Robert D. Reischauer a senior fellow in Economic Studies at the Brookings Institution was director of the Congressional Budget Office from 1989 to 1995. George Peterson is a senior fellow at the Urban Institute from 1976 to 1985 he directed the Institute's Public Finance Research Center. Van Doorn Ooms senior vice president and director of research at the Committee for Economic Development was formerly executive director for policy and chief economist of the Committee on the Budget U.S. House of Representatives 1989-1990 and was the Budget Committee's chief economist from 1981 to 1988.
