

FINANCIAL AID FOR COLLEGE

Don't panic about those scary high costs of attendance you see posted on college websites. Lots of students actually pay through grants, scholarships and other "free" funds by the time all is said and done. To make sure your family gets its fair share of financial aid, follow these very easy steps.

1. ESTABLISH A PLAN

☐ HAVE FAMILY MEETING

There's only so far you can go to carry the burden of your own education. Have a meeting to discuss the cost of attendance and what you really expect to receive. If you know your school's past grant and scholarship history, make sure you have the necessary documentation on hand.

☐ FIND A FINANCIAL SAFETY NET

Look for ways to help your college where you'll really benefit, as a volunteer, for example, or at home. Private colleges sometimes offer a fee waiver or stipend and, in some cases, even room and board.

☐ SORT OUT A SCHEDULING PLAN

Apply to schools whose plans for completing the FAFSA after classes start will fit your situation and the resources you have available.

☐ COMMIT TO THE PLAN

Even if you don't expect to use up all available resources for future education, don't let your commitment waiver when you find that college is too expensive.

☐ KNOW WHAT TO ASK FOR

When you're applying for aid, make sure you're asking for the right amount of financial aid. Don't over-estimate your needs. Ask for what you need and what you deserve. Be realistic about how much you can expect to receive and how much you need.

☐ MAKE THE MOST OF IT

Don't let financial aid become a crutch. Use it to help you pay for your education and to help you pay for your living expenses. Don't let it become a crutch.

☐ MAKE A COMMITMENT

A commitment to financial aid is a commitment to your future. Don't let it become a crutch. Use it to help you pay for your education and to help you pay for your living expenses. Don't let it become a crutch.

☐ MAKE A COMMITMENT

Don't let it become a crutch. Use it to help you pay for your education and to help you pay for your living expenses. Don't let it become a crutch.

☐ MAKE A COMMITMENT

Don't let it become a crutch. Use it to help you pay for your education and to help you pay for your living expenses. Don't let it become a crutch.
