Mixed Portraits Of Multiracial Kids:

Mixed Kip Fulbeck, 2013-05-07 From beloved writer and artist Kip Fulbeck author of Part Asian 100% Hapa this timely collection of portraits celebrates the faces and voices of mixed race children. At a time when 7 million people in the U.S. alone identify as belonging to more than one race interest in issues of multiracial identity is rapidly growing. Overflowing with uplifting elements including charming images handwritten statements from the children first person text from their parents a foreword by Dr. Maya Soetoro Ng President Obama's sister and an afterword by international star Cher who is part Cherokee this volume is an inspiring vision of the future

Raising Multiracial Children Farzana Nayani, 2020-04-28 The essential guide to parenting multiracial and multiethnic children of all ages and learning to support and celebrate their multiracial identities. In a world where people are more likely to proclaim color blindness than talk openly about race how can we truly value support and celebrate our kids identities. How can we assess our own sense of Racial Dialogue Readiness and develop a deeper understanding of the issues facing multiracial children today. Raising Multiracial Children gives caregivers the tools for exploring race with their children offering practical guidance on how to initiate conversations consciously foster racial identity development discuss issues like microaggressions intersectionality and privilege and intentionally cultivate a sense of belonging. It provides an overview of key issues and current topics relevant to raising multiracial children and offers strategies and developmentally appropriate milestones from infancy through adulthood. The book ends with resources and references for further learning and exploration

Multicultural and Ethnic Children's Literature in the United States Donna L. Gilton, 2020-02-18 This edition of Multicultural and Ethnic Children's Literature in the United States addresses both quantitative and more qualitative changes in this field over the last decade. Quantitative changes include more authors books and publishers book review sources booklists and awards organizations institutions and websites and criticism and other scholarship. Qualitative changes include More support for new and emerging writers and illustrators Promotion of multicultural literature both in the U.S. and around the world as well as developments in global literature. Developments in the literatures described throughout this book as well as in research supporting this literature. The impact of technology. Characteristics and activities of four adult audiences that use and promote multicultural children's literature and Changes in leaders and their organizations. This is still a single reference source for busy and involved librarians teachers parents scholars publishers distributors and community leaders. Most books on multicultural children's literature are written especially for teachers librarians and scholars. They may be introductions to the literature selection tools teaching guides or very theoretical books on choosing evaluating and using these materials. Multicultural and Ethnic Children's Literature in the United States focuses much more on the history of the development of this literature from the nineteenth century to the present day. This book provides much more of a cultural and political context for the early development of this literature. It emphasizes the self determining viewpoints and activities of diverse people as they produce materials for the young

Multicultural and Ethnic Children's Literature describes organizations events activities and other contributions of diverse writers illustrators publishers researchers scholars librarians educators and parents It also describes trends in the research on the literature It elaborates more on ways in which diversity is still an issue in publishing companies and an extended list of related industries It describes related literature from outside of the U S and makes connections to traditional global literature Last Multicultural and Ethnic Children's Literature shows the impact of multiculturalism on education libraries and the mainstream culture in general While the other books on multiculturalism focus on how to find evaluate and use multicultural materials especially in schools and libraries this book is concerned over whether and how books are produced in the first place and how this material impact the broader society In many ways it supplements other books on multicultural children's literature    War Baby / Love Child Laura Kina, Wei Ming Dariotis, 2013-01-17 War Baby Love Child examines hybrid Asian American identity through a collection of essays artworks and interviews at the intersection of critical mixed race studies and contemporary art The book pairs artwork and interviews with nineteen emerging mid career and established mixed race mixed heritage Asian American artists including Li lan and Kip Fulbeck with scholarly essays exploring such topics as Vietnamese Amerasians Korean transracial adoptions and multiethnic Hawai'i As an increasingly ethnically ambiguous Asian American generation is coming of age in an era of optional identity this collection brings together first person perspectives and a wider scholarly context to shed light on changing Asian American cultures Watch the trailer <http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=kJp0MDtKqyY> list UUge4MONgLFncQ1w1C_BnHcw index 2 feature plcp    Tep Vol 30-N3
