Reading Comprehension

Read the passage and answer the questions.

The Great Depression was a severe economic downturn that began in 1929 and lasted until the mid-1930s. It was characterized by widespread unemployment, poverty, and a collapse in consumer spending.

The New Deal was a series of programs and policies implemented by President Franklin D. Roosevelt to provide relief, recovery, and reform during the Great Depression.

The New Deal was a response to the economic crisis and aimed to address the needs of the American people. It included a variety of programs and policies that provided relief to the unemployed, created jobs, and reformed the financial system.

The New Deal was a landmark event in American history and played a significant role in the recovery from the Great Depression. It established a new role for the federal government in the economy and provided a model for future economic policy.
