My First Voyage to Southern Seas William Henry Giles Kingston, 1860. Ours was a very united and a very happy family. We lived in the neighbourhood of London near Blackheath in Kent on the elevated ground which overlooks Greenwich, its noble hospital, and the river Thames. Our father was a merchant, a thoroughly upright, industrious man, an honour to the profession to which he belonged. No man could be more attentive to business than he was, and yet no one enjoyed the country and the pursuits of the country more than he did. With what pleasure did we look forward when we were children to his return in the afternoon, and even now I think I hear his cheerful laugh and see his bland smile as he took us up one by one in his arms and kissed us, and then often thought he must frequently have been tired and harassed, had a game of boisterous romps with us, seeming entirely to have forgotten all his cares and troubles.
