My Japanese POW Diary Story Tillman J. Rutledge,1997      Philippine-American Military History, 1902-1942

Richard B. Meixsel,2015-10-02 Military obligations rested lightly upon the Filipino people for much of the period that America occupied the Philippines but Filipinos could enlist in the United States Army and Navy attend the service academies at West Point and Annapolis or join military organizations restricted to duty in the islands such as the Philippine Scouts Philippine Constabulary Philippine National Guard and the navy s insular force In the 1930s the Philippine government established its own armed forces Throughout much of this time the U S army also kept a substantial portion of its troop strength in the Philippines This annotated bibliography of nearly 700 titles highlights the extent and variety of the Philippine American military experience from the conquest of the islands by the United States in 1902 to the defeat of Philippine and American forces by the Japanese in 1942 The bibliography includes memoirs and biographies of Filipino and American officers and enlisted men from MacArthur to Ferdinand Marcos unit histories army post and navy base histories medals and insignia books and the most extensive list of prisoner of war memoirs yet published Annotations address controversies such as the widely disparate estimates of American deaths on the Bataan Death March and include previously unpublished information such as casualty figures for American and Philippine forces in 1941 1942      Surviving a Japanese Internment

Camp Rupert Wilkinson,2013-12-03 During World War II the Japanese imprisoned more American civilians at Manila s Santo Tomas prison camp than anywhere else along with British and other nationalities Placing the camp s story in the wider history of the Pacific war this book tells how the camp went through a drastic change from good conditions in the early days to impending mass starvation before its dramatic rescue by U S Army flying columns Interned as a small boy with his mother and older sister the author shows the many ways in which the camp s internees handled imprisonment and their liberation afterwards Using a wealth of Santo Tomas memoirs and diaries plus interviews with other ex internees and veteran army liberators he reveals how children reinvented their own society while adults coped with crowded dormitories evaded sex restrictions smuggled in food and through a strong internee government dealt with their Japanese overlords The text explores the attitudes and behavior of Japanese officials ranging from sadistic cruelty to humane cooperation and asks philosophical questions about atrocity and moral responsibility      The Journal of Military History ,2007      Frustrated

Ambition Richard Bruce Meixsel,2018-02-15 Vicente Podico Lim 1888 1944 was once his country s best known soldier The first Filipino to graduate from West Point and a graduate of the U S Army War College Lim figured in every significant military development in the Philippines during his thirty years in uniform Frustrated Ambition is the first in depth biography of this forgotten figure whose career paralleled the early twentieth century history of the Philippine military As independence seemed increasingly likely for the Philippines in the 1930s Lim positioned himself to take a leading role in developing armed forces for a sovereign nation But as Lim maneuvered behind the scenes Manuel L Quezon soon to be the commonwealth president revealed that he had invited General Douglas MacArthur to serve as military adviser to the Philippines Frustrated Ambition corrects the conventional historical narrative of events thereafter one that emphasizes the failure of the nascent Philippine military under MacArthur and inflates the general's heroic role in the defense of Bataan and Corregidor Richard Bruce Meixsel restores Lim as the then recognized leader of the opposition to MacArthur's mission and shows how Lim took the Philippine Army in a more tenable direction as MacArthur's military system foundered World War II brought Lim to the fore While MacArthur directed his troops from Corregidor Lim commanded a division on Bataan that may have suffered more combat losses at the battle of Abucay than did all American units on Bataan during the entire campaign When the U S high command turned its efforts to evacuating the Philippine Islands Lim began to prepare for the ensuing underground struggle against the Japanese a fight that cost him his life By recounting Vicente Lim's career Frustrated Ambition illuminates forgotten episodes in Philippine history offers new perspectives on military affairs during the American occupation and recovers the story of Filipino soldiers whose service changed the course of their country's military history Prisoners of the Japanese in World War II Van Waterford,1994 Narratives and facts on life in civilian internment centers and POW camps are presented here

P.O.W. Prisoner of War Hank Nelson,1985 The experiences of Australian prisoners of war in Japanese prison camps Changi prison Honorable Warrior Lewis Sorley,1998 A man of extraordinary inner strength and patriotic devotion General Harold K Johnson was a soldier's officer loved by his men and admired by his peers for his leadership courage and moral convictions Lewis Sorley's biography provides a fitting testament to this remarkable man and his dramatic rise from obscurity to become LBJ's Army Chief of Staff during the Vietnam War A native of North Dakota Johnson survived more than three grueling years as a POW under the Japanese during World War II before serving brilliantly as a field commander in the Korean War for which he was awarded the Distinguished Service Cross for extraordinary heroism The latter experiences led to a series of high level positions that culminated in his appointment as Army chief in 1964 and a cover story in Time magazine What followed should have been the most rewarding period of Johnson's military career Instead it proved to be a nightmare as he quickly became mired in the politics and ordeal of a very misguided war Johnson fundamentally disagreed with the three men LBJ Secretary of Defense Robert McNamara and General William Westmoreland running our war in Vietnam He was sharply critical of LBJ's piecemeal policy of gradual escalation and his failure to mobilize the national will or call up the reserves He was equally despondent over Westmoreland's now infamous search and destroy tactics and reliance on body counts to measure success in Vietnam By contrast he advocated greater emphasis on cutting the North's supply lines helping the South Vietnamese provide for their own internal defenses and sustaining a truly legitimate government in the South Unheeded he nevertheless continued to work behind the scenes to correct the nation's flawed approach to the war Sorley's study adds immeasurably to our understanding of the Vietnam War It also provides an inspiring account of principled leadership at a time when the American military is seeking to recover the very kinds of moral values exemplified by Harold K Johnson As such it presents a profound morality tale for our own era
