A Parent's Guide to the First Three Years Burton L. White,1980 Abstract An updated version for parents of infants and toddlers integrates new findings into the original material and addresses the questions most often asked by parents Practical methods for identifying avoiding or coping with child rearing problems are suggested The importance of the emotional and educational development of a child during the first 3 years of life is stressed emphasizing the parent s contribution Descriptions of developmental stages and individual variations based on 30 years of observations and research are provided Some general concerns dealt with include working parents parental roles discipline early detection of developmental problems sibling influence play and childbirth method Toys are recommended for specific levels of development Behavior patterns of young children are described to provide a framework to help parents create an atmosphere conducive to successful child rearing cj

The Legacy of Abandonment In Borderline Personality Disorder A. J Mahari,2006

From Van to Toronto Oksen Teghtsoonian,2003 This memoir describes a long and unusual life that started in eastern Turkey in 1896 in a house with an earthen floor and ended in middle class comfort in suburban Toronto nearly a century later The author was an eyewitness to the first genocide of the 20th century a horror in which most of his family was lost He lived through the first World War and the Bolshevik Revolution that led to the creation of the Soviet Union He fled from Soviet Armenia first to Moscow and then to London From there he went with wife and baby daughter to Toronto where he faced the task of earning a living during the Great Depression Caught up in this swirl of historical forces he describes in fascinating detail his remarkable story of survival And perhaps not the least remarkable fact of this life he was over 80 years of age when he began writing his life story There is much here to stimulate and educate not only those who wish to know more about the Armenian Diaspora but everyone with an interest in the human condition as it was experienced in other places and in another time
