New Maladies Of The Soul:

New Maladies of the Soul Julia Kristeva, 2025-01-14 These days who still has a soul asks Julia Kristeva in this psychoanalytic exploration Drawing on her many years of experience as a practicing psychoanalyst Kristeva reveals to readers a new kind of patient symptomatic of an age of political upheaval mass mediated culture and the dramatic overhaul of familial and sexual mores New Maladies of the Soul poses a troubling question about the human subject in the West today Is the psychic space that we have traditionally known disappearing Kristeva finds that the psychoanalytic models of Freud and Lacan need to be reread in light of this new patient a product of the contemporary moral crisis of values resulting from a loss of ideology and a deterioration of belief By revisiting Freud and Lacan Kristeva offers the hope of a new psychoanalysis Each patient she contends suffers from a unique malady which must be targeted In the first half of the book Kristeva offers a series of detailed case studies that reinforce her provocative theoretical notions These case studies illustrate today's new maladies common psychiatric disturbances as they are manifested in today's patient Drawing on the work of the psychologist Helene Deutsch and the writer Germaine de Stael Kristeva turns her attention to women's experiences and contributions Delving into art literature autobiography and theories of language she continues with an exploration of cultural products ranging from the Bible to the work of Leonardo da Vinci Kristeva offers the hope that these maladies harbor new creative potential and new hope for the soul if we can comprehend their effect on the individual and collective experiences of our time

Reinventing the Soul Mari Ruti, 2006-08-17 Essential reading for scholars and students in critical theory psychoanalysis and gender studies How does the self care for itself in the posthumanist era What psychic processes might allow the postmodern subject to find meaning and value in its life Is it possible to delineate a theory of psychic potentiality that is compatible with poststructuralist models of fluid decentered and polyvalent subjectivity Reinventing the Soul offers a new perspective on what it means to be a human being and to strive in the world despite the wounding effects of the socialization process Drawing on the rich legacies of French poststructuralism and Lacanian psychoanalysis Ruti builds an affirmative alternative to the post Foucaultian tendency to envision subjectivity as a function of hegemonic systems of power She proposes that the subject's encounter with the world also necessarily activates the psyche's innovative potential By focusing on matters of creative agency imaginative empowerment inner metamorphosis and self actualization Ruti outlines some of the mechanisms by which the psyche manages not only to survive its lack alienation or suffering but also to transform its abjection into an existentially livable reality Central to Ruti's argument is the idea that human beings relate to the world in active rather than merely passive ways as dynamic creators of meaning rather than as powerless dupes of disciplinary power

The Johns Hopkins Guide to Literary Theory and Criticism Michael Groden, Martin Kreiswirth, Imre Szeman, 2005
Publisher Description The Highway of Despair Robyn Marasco, 2015-03-24 Hegel's highway of despair introduced in his Phenomenology of Spirit is the tortured path traveled by natural consciousness on its way to freedom Despair the passionate residue of Hegelian critique also indicates fugitive opportunities for freedom and preserves the principle of hope against all hope Analyzing the works of an eclectic cast of thinkers Robyn Marasco considers the dynamism of despair as a critical passion reckoning with the forms of historical life forged along Hegel's highway The Highway of Despair follows Theodor Adorno Georges Bataille and Frantz Fanon as they each read resist and reconfigure a strand of thought in Hegel's Phenomenology of Spirit Confronting the twentieth century collapse of a certain revolutionary dialectic these thinkers struggle to revalue critical philosophy and recast Left Hegelianism within the contexts of genocidal racism world war and colonial domination Each thinker also re-centers the role of passion in critique Arguing against more recent trends in critical theory that promise an escape from despair Marasco shows how passion frustrates the resolutions of reason and faith Embracing the extremism of what Marx in the spirit of Hegel called the ruthless critique of everything existing she affirms the contemporary purchase of radical critical theory resulting in a passionate approach to political thought London Quarterly Review, 1873 The London Quarterly Review William Lonsdale Watkinson, William Theophilus Davison, 1873

Sermons for the Christian Year William Henry Lewis, 1870 Kristeva, Psychoanalysis and Culture Sylvie Gambaudo, 2007 With the introduction of the euro much recent attention has been focused on the role of currencies and their national and international significance Covering a time span of some two and a half millennia the contributions within this volume consider aspects of the European experience from classical antiquity until the beginning of the twenty first century

ECE, 2001 The Continuum Encyclopedia of Modern Criticism and Theory Julian Wolfreys, Ruth Robbins, Kenneth

Womack, Kara Kalenius, 2002-04-10 The Continuum Encyclopedia of Modern Criticism and Theory offers the student of literary and cultural studies a comprehensive single volume guide to the history and development of criticism in the humanities as the twenty first century opens While emphasizing the theory and practice of literary and cultural criticism it provides extensive coverage of related and contextual discourses as well as critical overviews of the work and reception of major figures responsible directly or indirectly for the development of those discourses in the now related areas of philosophy poetics politics aesthetics linguistics and psychoanalysis From the Foreword Journal of Leisureability, 1998 Semiotica, 2000 Framing the Polish Home Bożena Shallcross, 2002 As the subject of ideological aesthetic and existential manipulations the Polish home and its representation is an ever changing phenomenon that absorbs new tendencies and at the same time retains its centrality to Polish literature whether written in Poland or abroad Framing the Polish Home is a pioneering work that explores the idea of home as fundamental to the question of cultural and national identity within Poland's recent history and its tradition In this inaugural volume of the Polish and Polish American Studies Series the Polish home emerges in its rich verbal and visual representations and multiple material embodiments as the discussion moves from the loss of the home during wartime to the Sovietized politics of housing and from the exilic strategies of having a home to the idyllic evocation of the abodes of the past Although as Bożena Shallcross notes in her introduction few concepts seem to have such universal appeal as the notion of the home this area of study is still seriously underdeveloped In essays from sixteen scholars Framing the Polish Home takes a significant step to correct that oversight covering a broad range of issues pertinent to the discourse on the home and demonstrating the complexity of the home in Polish literature and culture The Edinburgh Encyclopaedia of Modern Criticism and Theory Julian Wolfreys, 2002 This work takes the reader through introductions to historically Feminism Reframed Alexandra M. Kokoli, 2008 Feminism Reframed Reflections on Art and Difference addresses the on going dialogue between feminism art history and visual culture from contemporary scholarly perspectives Over the past thirty years the critical interventions of feminist art historians in the academy the press and the art world have not only politicised and transformed the themes methods and conceptual tools of art history but have also contributed to the emergence of new interdisciplinary areas of investigation including notably that of visual culture Although the impact of such fruitful transformations is indisputable their exact contribution to contemporary scholarship remains a matter for debate not least because feminism itself has changed significantly since the Women's Liberation Movement Feminism Reframed reviews and revises existing feminist art histories but also reasserts the need for continuous feminist interventions in the academy the art world and beyond With contributions by Anthea Behm Alisia Grace Chase Jennifer G. Germann Catherine Grant Joanne Heath Ruth Hemus Alexandra Kokoli Beth Anne Lauritis Griselda Pollock Karen Roulstone Anne Swartz and Sue Tate Coming at the moment when contemporary art practices are themselves involved in re cycling re evaluating and re enacting the past this collection asks how feminism's own troubled histories can be reframed productively in the present The questions that feminism raised in the 1970s and 80s are still pertinent and are addressed in a number of original essays What does gender equality mean in the arts How can women TM s subjectivities be articulated or performed differently in art practices Can attention to gender enable us to engage with complex differences of race sexuality and class of age and generation Do we need new interpretative and conceptual models for writing about art Alexandra Kokoli TM s thoughtful and illuminating introduction reminds us that reframing is a risky but exciting business if it makes us ask these questions anew with attention to the politics and aesthetics of the present Rosemary Betterton Lancaster University

The Lost Coin Mary Ann Beavis, 2002-08-27 A collection of feminist interpretations of parables about women and women s work This volume not only fills a gap in the scholarly literature on parables but brings to life vignettes from ancient Mediterranean women s lives and offer insights into the place of women in the ministry of Jesus the early church and Christian theology It is a rich resource for scholarship teaching and preaching Contributors include the editor Elisabeth Schnssler Fiorenza Linda Maloney Kathleen Nash Pheme Perkins Barbara Reid Kathleen Rushton Holly Hearon and Adele Reinhartz Topics include feminist readings of the Parable of the Persistent Widow the Wise and Foolish Virgins the Prodigal Son the Faithful Steward and the Bride in John 3
