throughout Frank Davis's fifth book Amidst anecdotes and memories of growing up in Louisiana Davis shares recipes using language that creates a comfortable atmosphere for even amateur chefs Frank Davis delves into Louisiana culture with recipes such as Crawfish Bread Creole Rice Pudding and Frank's Bananas Foster Davis's advice on technique and preparation and his suggestions on which sides should accompany entrees and what to do with leftover ingredients and alternative seasonings takes the guesswork out of cooking leaving only the fun and food. By the time the meal is finished the term good groceries will imply something much more than a meal. In the New Orleans vernacular you have made groceries when you buy the ingredients at the store. Good groceries are the result of the love and effort that can transform ordinary ingredients into an outstanding dining experience. There are few writers who I can read a couple of their lines and undoubtedly identify them. Their style is unmistakable Hemingway and Dickens but on a much more local level there's Frank Davis. His style of communication is so uniquely New Orleans.
