conservation has failed to reduce deforestation in Indonesia and considers why key stakeholders have not responded as expected to these conservation interventions. The book maps the history of deforestation in Indonesia in the context of global political economy exploring the relationship between international trade the interests and ideology behind global sustainability programmes and the failures of forest conservation in Indonesia. Global economic and political ideologies are shown to have profoundly shaped deforestation. The author argues that the same forces continue to prevent positive outcomes. Case study chapters analyse three major international programmes Reducing Emissions from Deforestation and Forest Degradation (REDD) the Norway Indonesia bilateral partnership and the Roundtable on Sustainable Palm Oil (RSPO) in Indonesia. The findings provide insight into the failures of global climate change policy and suggest how the book's theoretical model can be used to analyse other complex environmental problems. The book is a useful reference for students of environmental science and policy political theory international relations development and economics. It will also be of interest to forestry professionals and practitioners working in NGOs.

Urbanization and Development, 2016. The analysis of urban development of the past twenty years presented in this maiden edition of the World Cities Report shows with compelling evidence that there are new forms of collaboration and cooperation planning governance finance and learning that can sustain positive change. The Report unequivocally demonstrates that the current urbanization model is unsustainable in many respects. It conveys a clear message that the pattern of urbanization needs to change in order to better respond to the challenges of our time to address issues such as inequality climate change informality insecurity and the unsustainable forms of urban expansion.

Developmental Social Work Julian Chow, Pei-shan Yang, Eden Social Welfare Foundation, 2021-02-26. Developmental social work emphasizes interdisciplinary collaborations and believes it can accurately respond to the issues and the needs of our society. Therefore more and more non profit organizations are involved in this field. In Taiwan the recent social issues such as the poverty of young adults and the Long term Care all indicate a need for fresh thoughts and working methods. Responding to this need social innovation has been seen as a way of developmental social work practice. Since 2015 Eden Social Welfare Foundation has collaborated with the Department of Social Work of National Taiwan University to hold three international conferences regarding developmental social work. We published two conference proceedings Developmental Social Work Theory and Practice and Developmental Social Work Advancing Policy and Practice. This book focuses on the theme of social innovation and contains various innovative ongoing cases of developmental social work. It also compiles lecture and forum notes to share the concepts practices and dialogues of developmental social work helping readers develop a broader and deeper innovative thinking.

Behavioral Medicine A Guide for Clinical Practice 5th Edition Mitchell D. Feldman, John F. Christensen, 2019-12-06. The 1 guide to behavioral issues in medicine delivering thorough practical discussion of the full scope of the physician patient relationship. This is an extraordinarily thorough useful book. It manages to summarize numerous topics many of which are not a part of a traditional medical curriculum in concise relevant chapters. Doody's Review Service 5 stars reviewing an earlier edition. The goal of Behavioral Medicine is to help practitioners and students understand the interplay between psychological physical social and cultural issues of patients. Within its pages readers will find real world coverage of behavioral and interactional issues that occur between provider and patient in everyday clinical practice. Readers will learn how to deliver bad news how to conduct an effective patient interview how to care for patients at the end of life how to clinically manage common mental and behavioral issues in medical patients the principles of medical professionalism motivating behavior change and much more. As the leading text on the subject this trusted classic delivers the most definitive practical overview of the behavioral clinical and social contexts of the physician patient relationship. The book is case based to reinforce learning through real world examples focusing on issues that commonly arise in everyday medical practice and training. One of the significant elements of Behavioral Medicine is the recognition that the wellbeing of physicians and other health professionals is critically important to caring for patients. 2021-02-26 2015

CO2 Emissions from Fuel Combustion, 2009 Index to IEEE Publications Institute of Electrical and Electronics Engineers, 1989. Issues for 1973 cover the entire IEEE technical literature. Human Development Report 2007/2008 United Nations Development Programme, 2007-11-15. Human development is about putting people at the center of development. It is about people realizing their potential increasing choice and enjoying the freedom to lead the lives they value. Created in 1990 the Human Development Report has explored themes including gender equity democracy human rights globalization cultural liberty and water scarcity. The past years have witnessed the emergence of a growing consensus on climate change. Governments across the world have seen the warning signs. The science linking global warming to human activity is unequivocal. The economic case for action is compelling the costs of inaction will heavily outweigh the costs of action. Yet the politics lags behind the science and the economics. Collectively the world's governments are failing to act with the urgency demanded by the scale of the threat. The window of opportunity for avoiding dangerous climate change is closing fast. This year's Human Development Report explains why we have less than a decade to change course and start living within our global carbon budget. It explains how climate change will create long run low human development traps pushing vulnerable people into a downward spiral of deprivation. Because climate change is a global problem with global causes and effects it demands a global response with countries acting on the basis of their historic responsibility and capabilities. 2015
