Reimagining Korea Yohan Yoo, Song Chong Lee, 2025-07-14 This volume project explores how evolving values and identities in contemporary Korean society are interpreted, particularly through the lens of religion, positioning it as a window into Korea's dynamic cultural and social landscape. As Korea grapples with rapid modernization, shifting religious beliefs and expressions reflect new aspects of the Korean people's values and identity in both personal and communal dimensions. New Religious Movements in Modern Asian History David W. Kim, 2020-09-30 This book provides evidence that the emergence of Asian new religious movements (NRMs) was predominantly the result of anti-colonial ideology from local religious groups or individuals. The contributors argue that when traditional religions were powerless to maintain their cultural heritage, the leadership of NRMs adduced alternative principles and the new teachings of each NRM attracted the local people enough for them to change their beliefs. The contributors argue that as a whole, the Asian new religious movements overall were very ardent and progressive in transmitting their new ideologies. The varied viewpoints in this volume attest to the consistent development of Asian NRMs from domestic and international dimensions by replacing old traditional religions.

Christian Responses to the New Age Movement John A. Saliba, 1999. For Christians the first encounter with the New Age Movement may prove confusing. On the one hand there is an attraction in New Age ideology and ritual practice but on the other this very attraction raises theological and pastoral questions for the Churches whose responses have been ambiguous and conflicting.
