Improvisation Games for Classical Musicians Jeffrey Agrell, 2008 Why don't classical musicians improvise Why do jazz players get to have all the fun And how do they develop such fabulous technique and aural skills With these words Jeffrey Agrell opens the door to improvisation for all non jazz musicians who thought it was beyond their ability to play extemporaneously Step by step Agrell leads through a series of games rather than exercises The game format takes the pressure off of classically trained musicians steering them away from their fixation on mistake free performance and introducing the basic concepts of playing with music itself instead of obsessing over a perfect rendition of a written score Agrell draws an analogy with sports that illustrates the absurdity of the traditional approach to classically oriented music performance
