Mediaweek, 2004-04 Sports Crazy Steven J. Overman, 2019-02-11 Sports Crazy How Sports Are Sabotaging American Schools exposes the excesses of middle and high school sports and the detrimental effects our sports obsession has on American education Institutions are increasingly emulating college and professional sports models and losing sight of a host of educational and health goals Steven J Overman describes how this agenda is driven largely by partisan fans and parents of athletes who exert an inordinate influence on school priorities and he explains how and why school administrators shockingly and consistently capitulate to these demands The author underscores the incongruity of public schools involved in an entertainment business and the effects this diversion has on academic integrity learning life experience and overall educational outcomes Overman examines out of control school sports within the context of a school's educational mission and curriculum with telling reference to impacts on physical education He explores as well the outsized place of interscholastic sports beyond the classroom and scrutinizes the distorted relationship between intramural or recreational sports and elitist varsity athletics Overman's chapter on tackle football explains many reasons why this sport should be eliminated from the school extracurriculum and replaced by flag or touch football Overman presents a brief history of interscholastic sports and he compares and contrasts the American experience of school sponsored sport to the European model of community based clubs Which approach better serves students Overman recommends reforms in the context of a radical proposal to phase out interscholastic sports in favor of an intramural or club model This approach would alleviate such problems as elitism and gender bias and reign in hypercompetitiveness while freeing schools to educate students rather than provide public entertainment Sport Marketing Bernard James Mullin, Stephen Hardy, William Anthony Sutton, 2007 This student text provides a foundation of theory and principles for those seeking sports management position It provides an overview of the reasons and foundations for sport marketing as well as theoretical and research issues and why market segmentation is important Football and Its Future Francesco Manfredi, 2006 Football is universal in the values that it protects and proposes and in its capacity to produce social and economic value the economic value coming from the professional domain and the social value from the amateur domain The former is the domain of stars big events new stories victories and outstanding feats of athleticism the second is the less visible side of the whole movement the domain of spontaneity fun and participants of all ages and abilities being together regardless of race religion language or the chances of victory or great athletic feats This book the result of much study and contemplation on football management embraces all of these themes starting with the acknowledgement of the diversity of these two domains and at the same time of their inseparability
