The Oxford Handbook of Japanese Cinema Daisuke Miyao, 2013-12-09 The reality of transnational innovation and dissemination of new technologies including digital media has yet to make a dent in the deep seated culturalism that insists on reinscribing a divide between the West and Japan The Oxford Handbook of Japanese Cinema aims to counter this trend toward dichotomizing the West and Japan and to challenge the pervasive culturalism of today's film and media studies Featuring twenty essays each authored by a leading researcher in the field this volume addresses productive debates about where Japanese cinema is and where Japanese cinema is going at the period of crisis of national boundary under globalization It reevaluates the position of Japanese cinema within the discipline of cinema and media studies and beyond and situates Japanese cinema within the broader fields of transnational film history Likewise it examines the materiality of Japanese cinema scrutinizes cinema's relationship to other media and identifies the specific practices of film production and reception As a whole the volume fosters a dialogue between Japanese scholars of Japanese cinema film scholars of Japanese cinema based in Anglo American and European countries film scholars of non Japanese cinema film archivists film critics and filmmakers familiar with film scholarship A comprehensive volume that grasps Japanese cinema under the rubric of the global and also fills the gap between Japanese and non Japanese film studies and between theories and practices The Oxford Handbook of Japanese Cinema challenges and responds to the major developments underfoot in this rapidly changing field

The Oxford Handbook of Film and Media Studies Robert Kolker, 2008-09-11 This handbook examines film and new media in the light of their convergence It draws on leading scholars in the field to discuss traditional areas of history and theory of film and digital media Its focus however is on the cycle of technologically driven arts Film was born of a number of experiments in reproducing motion all of which culminated in the nineteenth century projection of short films The creation of digital media resulted from experiments in alternative forms of representation in the early 1960s John Whitney began creating avant garde films from digital graphics around 1960 and some of his ideas and methods were incorporated by Stanley Kubrick in 2001 A Space Odyssey By the early 1990s commercial filmmakers began to employ digital effects in their work By the late nineties digital arts had come fully into their own both in the form of stand alone or interactive artworks and films created with and for the computer At the same time digital effects had completely overtaken optical printing and matte painting in film From special effects to creating realistic backgrounds and crowds the digital is infiltrating all aspects of filmmaking The infiltration is about to become a takeover as celluloid is replaced by high definition digital recording and projection processes Many aspects of film will change as this latest convergence takes place Already cultural response to film has changed as viewers begin to teach themselves about film through supplementary material on DVDs and to make their own films on home computers But this handbook is not a technical history or manual Quite the contrary it is a scholarly work discussing the aesthetics economics and cultural results of these changes and convergences The book balances traditional scholarship and analysis with essays addressing technological change and the concurrent changes in cultural responses to these changes responses already acknowledged by the profession Women Filmmakers Jacqueline Levitin, Judith Plessis, Valerie Raoul, 2016-02-29 This wide ranging volume of new work brings together women filmmakers and critics who speak about what has changed over the past twenty years Including such filmmakers as Margarethe von Trotta Deepa Mehta and Pratibha Parmar and such critics as E Ann Kaplan this comprehensive volume addresses political artistic and economic questions vital Cinema Studies Susan Hayward, 2013 Film studies is a course that is often articulated in highly technical or complex critical vocabulary This is an A Z of the key critical terms designed to make film texts and analysis more accessible to the student The ^AOxford Handbook of Queer Cinema Ronald Gregg, Amy Villarejo, 2021-11-12 The Oxford Handbook of Queer Cinema encompasses more than a century of filmmaking film criticism and film reception looking at the ways in which the idea of queer cinema has expanded as a descriptor for a global arts practice Contemporary American Cinema Linda Williams, Michael Hammond, 2006-05-16 One of the rare collections I would recommend for use in undergraduate teaching the chapters are lucid without being oversimplified and the contributors are adept at analyzing the key industrial technological and ideological features of contemporary U S cinema Diane Negra University of East Anglia UK Contemporary American Cinema offers a fresh and sometimes revisionist look at developments in the American film industry from the 1960s to the present Readers will find it lively and provocative Chuck Maland University of Tennessee USA Contemporary American Cinema is the book on the subject that undergraduate classes have been waiting for Comprehensive detailed and intelligently organized and written in accessible and compelling prose Contemporary American Cinema will be embraced by instructors and students alike Charlie Keil Director Cinema Studies Program University of Toronto Canada Contemporary American Cinema usefully gathers together a range of materials that provide a valuable resource for students and scholars It is also a pleasure to read Hilary Radner University of Otago New Zealand Contemporary American Cinema deepens our knowledge of American cinema since the 1960s This is an important collection that will be widely used in university classrooms Lee Grieveson University College London UK Contemporary American Cinema is a clear sighted and tremendously readable anthology mapping the terrain of post sixties US cinema with breadth and critical verve Paul Grainge University of Nottingham UK This collection of freshly written essays by leading specialists in the field will most likely be one of the most important works of reference for students and film scholars for years to come Liv Hausken University of Oslo Norway Contemporary American Cinema is the first comprehensive introduction to American cinema since 1960 The book is unique in its treatment of both Hollywood alternative and non mainstream cinema Critical essays from leading film scholars are supplemented by boxed profiles of key directors producers and actors key films and key genres and statistics from the cinema industry Illustrated in colour and black and white with film stills posters and production images the book has two tables of contents allowing students to use the book chronologically decade by decade or thematically by subject Designed especially for courses in cinema studies and film studies cultural studies and American studies Contemporary American Cinema features a glossary of key terms fully referenced resources and suggestions for further reading questions for class discussion and a comprehensive filmography Individual chapters include The decline of the studio system The rise of American new wave cinema The history of the blockbuster The parallel histories of independent and underground film Black cinema from blaxploitation to the 1990s Changing audiences The effects of new technology Comprehensive overview of US documentary from 1960 to the present Contributors include Stephen Prince Steve Neale Susan Jeffords Yvonne Tasker Barbara Klinger Jim Hillier Peter Kramer Mark Shiel Sheldon Hall Eithne Quinn Michele Aaron Jonathan Munby

Creole Cinema: Memory Traces Louise Hardwick, 2025-02-10 Creole Cinema: Memory Traces is the first book written in English on Francophone Caribbean cinema It establishes a postcolonial Caribbean and fundamentally Creole theoretical framework for the interpretation of works which the author defines as Creole cinema through the lens of Patrick Chamoiseau's concept of the Trace m moire In so doing it examines the remarkable multisensory forms of memory expression performed by Creole cinema drawing on work on intercultural cinema and haptic visuality by Laura Marks and on Hamid Naficy's insights into accented cinema Initially undertaking a general survey which provides the most comprehensive account of Francophone Caribbean cinema to date the critical framework is then developed in a series of case studies which analyse Biguine 2004 directed by Guy Deslauriers with a screenplay by Chamoiseau Nord Plage 2004 directed by Jos Hayot again with Chamoiseau as author of the screenplay Rue Cases N gres 1983 Sugar Cane Alley directed by Euzhan Palcy and N g maron 2005 directed by Jean Claude Barne Each case study establishes how the Trace m moire manifests in a complex haptic multisensory set of dynamics which can be discerned both in individual works and across a wider range of films considered in order to access and retrieve here with a particular emphasis on processes of creative intuition subaltern and marginalised memories and histories The study works in a consistently interdisciplinary manner across areas including Francophone Studies Film Studies Postcolonial Studies World Cinema and Black Studies and represents a timely intervention on urgent debates around black representation in cinema

Guide to the Cinema of Spain Marvin D'Lugo, 1997-11-25 This guide to Spanish film documents the film industry's interpretation of the isolating effects of the cultural traditionalism of the early twentieth century to the expanding international popularity of such films as Trueba's Belle Epoque Aranda's Amantes and Bigas Luna's Jam n Jam n and such actors as Victoria Abril Carmen Maura and Antonio Banderas This is the first volume in a new Greenwood series that discusses historically and critically films directors and actors in film industries throughout the world Each volume will include a detailed historical introduction and will provide an in depth treatment of the most important films and individuals involved in the industry End of entry bibliographies provide sources for further reading and appendixes provide additional useful information The Guides will be valuable to scholars students and film buffs Spanish cinema is in many ways a microcosm of the tensions and conflicts that have shaped the evolution of the nation over the course of this century Spanish film as a cultural institution is rarely divorced from the political and social currents that have shaped the larger Spanish culture torn as it was between tendencies of localism and internationalism It languished in industrial and artistic underdevelopment for many years under Franco it is now however experiencing international recognition while remaining rooted in the specificity of its own popular cultural styles The Oxford History of World Cinema Geoffrey Nowell-Smith,1996 Featuring nearly three thousand film stills production shots and other illustrations an authoritative history of the cinema traces the development of the medium its filmmakers and stars and the evolution of national cinemas around the world

The Oxford Handbook of Film Music Studies David Neumeyer,2013-11-04 Music has been an integral part of film exhibition from its beginnings in the late nineteenth century With the arrival of sound film in the late 1920s music became part of a complex multimedia text Although industry fan oriented and scholarly literatures on film music have existed from early on and music was frequently among the topics discussed and disputed only in the past thirty years has sustained scholarly attention gone to music in visual media beginning with the feature film The Oxford Handbook of Film Music Studies charts that interdisciplinary activity in its primary areas of inquiry history genre and medium analysis and criticism and interpretation The handbook provides an overview to the field on a large scale Chapters in Part I range from the relations of music and the soundtrack to opera and film textual representation of film sound and film music as studied by cognitive scientists Part II addresses genre and medium with chapters focusing on cartoons and animated films the film musical music in arcade and early video games and the interplay of film music and recording over the past half century The chapters in Part III offer case studies in interpretation along with extended critical surveys of theoretical models of gender sexuality and subjectivity as they impinge on music and sound The three chapters on analysis in Part IV are diverse one systematically models harmonies used in recent films a second looks at issues of music and film temporality and a third focuses on television Chapters on history Part V cover topics including musical antecedents in nineteenth century theater the complex issues in synchronization of music in performance of early silent films international practices in early film exhibition and the symphony orchestra in film
