OECD Reviews on Local Job Creation Future-Proofing Adult Learning in London, United Kingdom OECD,2021-03-09

Cities are not only home to around half of the global population but are also at the forefront of the transformation of jobs skills and labour markets Furthermore cities play a leading role in the COVID 19 response as the pandemic is not only accelerating megatrends such as digitalisation and automation that change the world of work but is also challenging city economies Showmen's Motion Picture Trade Review ,1957 OECD Reviews on Local Job Creation Employment and Skills Strategies in Indonesia OECD,Asian Development Bank,2020-10-07

This report comes at a time when policy makers are challenged by the COVID 19 crisis that is generating a profound reflection on economic and social well being

Before COVID 19 hit Indonesia had experienced remarkable economic growth making substantial progress in poverty reduction and gains in employment However there are large differences in outcomes across Indonesian provinces which often reflect the quality of local infrastructure services education and jobs House of Commons - Transport Committee: Access to Transport For Disabled People - Volume I: HC 116 Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Transport Committee,2013-09-17

In the UK some 11 5m people already live with a recognised disability and more than a fifth of them experience some difficulty when using transport networks So it's essential that the Department for Transport delivers an ambitious Accessibility Action Plan Changes made ahead of the 2012 Paralympic Games delivered access for disabled people to significantly more parts of the public transport network for the first time and highlighted the immense value of such improvements for all Yet a year later there is a risk that some of the momentum from London 2012 is being lost because further key accessibility improvements planned have been watered down or abandoned The Committee's recommendations include imposing penalties on bus operators who claim to offer accessible routes but then fail to provide accessible buses the phased introduction of audio visual information systems on all buses over the next ten years phasing out the need for disabled travellers having to book organised assistance in advance financial incentives to encourage investment in fully accessible vehicles by taxi and private hire vehicle operators and a change to EU rules so that in future airlines are required to allow carers to travel free of charge when the airline judges a disabled person incapable of travelling independently The Cabinet Office should convene a working group of ministers and officials to improve cross government working on accessibility in order to secure the full benefits to be gained from widening disabled people's access to Television Reviews, 1993-1994 Prouty, 1996-10 This collection of essays and reviews represents the most significant and comprehensive writing on Shakespeare's A Comedy of Errors. Miola's edited work also features a comprehensive critical history coupled with a full bibliography and photographs of major productions of the play from around the world. In the collection there are five previously unpublished essays. The topics covered in these new essays are women in the play, the play's debt to contemporary theater, its critical and performance histories in Germany and Japan, the metrical variety of the play, and the distinctly modern perspective on the play as containing dark and disturbing elements. To compliment these new essays the collection features significant scholarship and commentary on The Comedy of Errors that is published in obscure and difficultly accessible journals, newspapers and other sources. This collection brings together these essays for the first time.
