coach video

coach video

coach video displays the video of exercises or performance repetitions. The user of the application can also train and measure practice, allowing the user to see that as they train and measure their physical performance and gain as much as their competitors.

There are three accuracy tools that the coach and user can use to measure and report on the performance of players with the required system.

The research into these factors is the aspect of performance that surrounds and controls skill, resulting

- Player and team strength training
- Field and training report and live info
- Improve the technique and measurement of data
- Short feasibility with a highly portable system

ABOUT THE SYSTEM

WHAT IT IS

coach video has been created to provide an easier technique for any coach or player to measure, record and analyse performance to provide an easier learning of the game and area.

coach video requires 3D cameras to carry out tracking and the technique provides an easy tracking of the player and the training and diagnostic tools to provide an easier process when it comes to training and using simple portable tools.

WHAT IT IS

coach video has been designed to give coaches a new game and tool that can be used to analyse, measure, evaluate feedback for coaches who want to understand their training in a simple, effective and fast performance.
