These Education Initiatives, previously announced on 10/20/01, are designed to strengthen the congressional ability to support education programs. Education Initiatives are designed to support the following: Education Initiatives in Congress: Subcommittee, Test, Assessment panel, and report panels on the education budget, and a program to allow members from opposite sides of the aisle to work together through their spending on education. These panels will be convened by the House and Senate Education Committees during the 107th Congress. The House and Senate Education Committees will be responsible for the implementation of these panels.
