Out Of Sight Imdb:

Another Steven Soderbergh Experience Mark Gallagher, 2013-04-15 How do we determine authorship in film and what happens when we look in depth at the creative activity of living filmmakers rather than approach their work through the abstract prism of auteur theory? Mark Gallagher uses Steven Soderbergh's career as a lens through which to review screen authorship and offer a new model that acknowledges the fundamentally collaborative nature of authorial work and its circulation. Working in film, television and digital video, Soderbergh is the most prolific and protean filmmaker in contemporary American cinema. At the same time, his activity typifies contemporary screen industry practice in which production entities, distribution platforms and creative labor increasingly cross pollinate. Gallagher investigates Soderbergh's work on such films as The Limey, Erin Brockovich, Ocean's Eleven and its sequels, Solaris, The Good German, Che and The Informant, as well as on the K Street television series. Dispensing with classical auteurist models, he positions Soderbergh and authorship in terms of collaborative production, location, filming, activity, dealmaking and distribution, textual representation, genre and adaptation, work, critical reception and other industrial and cultural phenomena. Gallagher also addresses Soderbergh's role as standard bearer for U.S. independent cinema following 1989's sex, lies and videotape, as well as his cinephilic dialogues with different forms of U.S. and international cinema from the 1920s through the 1970s. Including an extensive new interview with the filmmaker, Another Steven Soderbergh Experience demonstrates how industries and institutions cultivate, recognize and challenge creative screen artists.

The Cinema of Steven Soderbergh Andrew deWaard, R. Colin Tait, 2013-05-07 The industry's only director, cinematographer, screenwriter, producer, actor, editor, Steven Soderbergh is contemporary Hollywood's most innovative and prolific filmmaker. A Palme d'Or and Academy Award winner, Soderbergh has directed nearly thirty films, including political provocations, digital experiments, esoteric documentaries, global blockbusters and a series of atypical genre films. This volume considers its slippery subject from several perspectives, analyzing Soderbergh as an expressive auteur of art cinema and genre fare, as a politically motivated guerrilla filmmaker and as a Hollywood insider. Combining a detective's approach to investigating the truth with a criminal's alternative value system, Soderbergh's films tackle social justice in a corporate world, embodying dozens of cinematic trends and forms advanced in the past twenty-five years. His career demonstrates the richness of contemporary American cinema and this study gives his complex oeuvre the in-depth analysis it deserves.
