Moving Beyond Church Growth Prisms:

The Living Church ,2002-06 Governance and Christian Higher Education in the African Context David K. Ngaruiya,Rodney L. Reed,2019-02-14 Integrity pastoral care and authority lie at the heart of Christian leadership and indeed following Jesus in any capacity and they are also critical in state governance and Christian higher education The articles in this book the product of the 2017 conference of the Africa Society of Evangelical Theology address these themes and other topics relating to the spheres of government and education in Africa to enhance our understanding of the challenges faced in African contexts A wide range of Christian scholar leaders provide a way forward for other church and institutional leaders who are seeking to faithfully fulfill their responsibilities of stewardship and instruction Corruption civil disobedience good governance and formation of Christian leaders are matters that are becoming increasingly relevant not only in many African countries but across the world and this book is a valuable resource for thoughtful reflection and guidance on these important subjects Moving Beyond Church Growth Mark A. Olson,2001-12-01 Character development for communities of faith Mark Olson believes that trying to meet unrealistic expectations for church growth along with expectations that pastors be all things to all people has resulted in low morale even burnout among clergy and dissension within congregations Olson s book argues that church growth models exemplify and exacerbate the tendencies of the modern age and Constantinian Christianity holding the church hostage to technique and marketing These assumptions set up pastors and churches for disappointment and failure But they also in his opinion miss an opportunity to envision a faithful alternative to the consumeristic church Olson s valuable book calls church leaders to faithful bold and courageous rethinking of congregational life and witness in substance purpose and style His own 20 years of ministry in rural suburban and urban congregations inform an alternative rooted deeply in the past and anchored in strong leadership and worship but also profoundly compassionate and engaged in the surrounding community In this model pastors primary responsibilities are not to fix everything and everybody but to enable people to be present to each other and to provide hope A Servant's Manual Michael W. Foss, This short volume is a plea for Christians to rethink their point and purpose in light of larger cultural changes and a crisis in leadership Foss s model of moving from issues into conversation and then into compassion is a blueprint for new leadership Breaking the Conspiracy of Silence Donald E. Messer,2004-01-01 A passionate and well articulated call to mission Messer charts steps for individuals congregations denominations and ecumenical agencies in a faithful response to the HIV AIDS Lives Entrusted Barbara J. Blodgett, Behind all the issues of ministerial conduct and character lies a simple reality The heart of ministerial ethics and integrity argues Barbara Blodgett is trust trust expected trust earned trust practiced In Lives Entrusted Blodgett shows how trust is not an emotion or intention but a transaction People entrust each other with things they value and that interaction endows a relationship which in turn helps to create community Trust however is undermined by a number of trust busters common in the church including secrecy auditing gossip and b s By focusing on crucial practices of trust identified in terms of risk vulnerability and power Blodgett shows us how we may practice better trust and thus create a unique new framework for ministerial identity and ethics The Right Road Gwen Wagstrom Halaas,2004-01-01 Many clergy are in startlingly bad health Not only do they regularly report depression stress and serious family and financial problems they also exhibit higher than normal incidences of obesity high cholesterol levels inactivity high blood pressure and heart disease How effective can professionals in ministry be with such debilities and vulnerabilities Are clergy too busy helping others to take care of themselves Gwen Halaas s caring and savvy book addresses clergy health directly clergy have a spiritual as well as physical need to care for themselves to live to the fullest to ensure that they enjoy the life and gifts God gave them Building her brief practical book around the wellness wheel Halaas emphasizes not just healthy eating but a whole array of life affirming choices for clergy Halaas provides the tools for clergy to choose growth and well being over burnout and decline With this practical and upbeat volume clergy can begin to put their own lives in perspective and keep themselves in training for a godly life 1 Timothy 4 7 Clergy Burnout Fred Lehr, In this highly accessible book Fred Lehr clarifies the nature and practice of clergy codependence In twenty two short insightful and highly readable chapters filled with many examples and stories from his own life and those of others he has counseled Lehr identifies the typical forms codependence takes in the life and ministry of clergy 1 the chief enabler the one who keeps things functioning 2 the scapegoat the one on whom everything s blamed when it goes wrong the one who s responsible 3 the hero the example the pure and righteous one 4 the lost child the one no one really knows or cares about 5 the rescuer the one who saves the day makes the visit fixes the problem makes everything all right again 6 the mascot the cheerleader the one who offers comic relief brings down the tension level after a heated discussion Ethical Leadership

Walter E. Fluker,2009 We live in a leadership crisis In an age when incompatible worlds collide and when scandals rock formerly stable institutions says Walter Fluker what counts most is ethical leadership and the qualities of personal integrity spiritual discipline intellectual openness and moral anchoring Fluker finds these characteristics exemplified in the work and thought of black church giants Martin Luther King Jr and Howard Thurman This volume for leaders and emergent leaders in religious and other settings sets forth the context and principles for ethical leadership particularly for ministries and other professions whose mission directly advances the common good Fluker s volume grounds leadership in story the appropriation of one s roots as a basis for personal and social transformation He then explores the key values of character civility and community for ethical action on the personal public and spiritual realms From these considerations he develops a model of the specific virtues that embody each realm of ethical leadership before applying them to the practical aspects of leadership and decisionmaking The Prism of Piety John Corrigan,1991 The first study to focus on catholick congregationalism this book illustrates the manner in which the Enlightenment first affected American religious thought and describes the crystallization of a set of terms that continued to guide American thought in the Age of Reason This book attacks the widely accepted ideas propounded by Perry Miller that Enlightenment ideas hastened the demise of religion in eighteenth century New England Corrigan argues that Miller misread and misunderstood those New England theologians who were most influenced by the Enlightenment in the early eighteenth century On Corrigan's reading of these same writers Enlightenment ideas actually contributed toward the revitalization of congregationalism during this period Corrigan analyzes the writing of a group of Boston ministers Benjamin Colman Nathaniel Appleton Ebenezer Pemberton Benjamin Wadsworth Thomas Foxcroft and Edward Holyoke and finds that the catholicks welcomed Enlightenment thought as a needed counterbalance to prevailing views of the world and society as corrupt and dangerous and used them to promote a return to trust in religious community Capitalism is Not Democracy: Replacing capitalism with cosmopolitanism H. Raymond Samuels II.,H. Raymond Samuels, 2nd,2005

Violence as Seen Through a Prism of Color Letha A. See,2001 Arguing that individual violence stems from the structure of our society and its institutions African American educators and practitioners including some who have experienced political violence examine violence in prisons schools and colleges churches homes and within political and corporate structures Subjects include poverty as a form of violence violence against African American women in prisons violence in predominantly white institutions of higher education and violence in black male female relationships This work has been co published simultaneously as Journal of Human Behavior in the Social Environment vol 4 nos 2 3 and 4 2001 See teaches social work at the University of Georgia Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR Through the Prism of Difference Maxine Baca Zinn,Pierrette Hondagneu-Sotelo,Michael A. Messner,1997 The editors have gone beyond simply assembling a collection of readings by the leading scholars of sex and gender they introduce a new way to conceptualize the interrelationships between gender relations and other systems of inequality and difference The editors invoke the image of a prism through which different groups are seen not as distinct but in a continuous spectrum The prism approach illustrates the varied ways that gender is constructed relationally and thus experienced differently Toward this end the editors draw from the most recent studies of women and men especially studies of gender relations in the context of different sexual racial ethnic social class physical abilities age and national citizenship contexts Though the majority of articles in the book focus on issues in U S gender relations the editors have included numerous articles that focus on international and transnational factors Together the articles in this book shed critical yet at times optimistic light on the possibilities for change New Catholic World ,1984 Punch ,1895 Punch Mark Lemon, Henry Mayhew, Tom Taylor, Shirley Brooks, Francis Cowley Burnand, Owen Seaman, 1895 Scientific American ,1889 Christian Work ,1898
