Ms. Mentor's New and Ever More Impeccable Advice for Women and Men in Academia Emily Toth,2013-03-01
Ms Mentor that uniquely brilliant and irascible intellectual is your all knowing guide through the jungle that is academia today In the last decade Ms Mentor's mailbox has been filled to overflowing with thousands of plaintive epistles rants and gossipy screeds A mere fraction has appeared in her celebrated monthly online and print Q her readers colorful and rebellious ripostes have gone unpublished until now Hearing the call for a follow up to the wildly successful Ms Mentor's Impeccable Advice for Women in Academia Ms Mentor now broadens her counsel to include academics of the male variety Ms Mentor knows all about foraging for jobs about graduate school stars and serfs and about mentors and underminers backbiters and whiners She answers burning questions Am I too old too working class too perfect too blonde When should I reproduce When do I speak up laugh and spill the secrets I've gathered Do I really have to erase my own blackboard Does academic sex have to be reptilian From the ivory tower that affords her an unparalleled view of the academic landscape Ms Mentor dispenses her perfect wisdom to the huddled masses of professorial newbies hardbitten oldies and anxious midcareerists She gives etiquette lessons to academic couples and the tough talking low down on adjunct positions She tells you what to wear how to make yourself popular and how to decode academic language She introduces you to characters you must know Professor Pelvic Dr Iron Fist Mr Upstart Whelp Dean Titan Professor McShameless In this volume Ms Mentor once again shares her wide ranging unexpurgated wisdom giving tips on bizarre writing rituals tenure diaries and time management Exploding Head Syndrome She decodes department meetings and teaches you the tricks for getting stellar teaching evaluations Raw shocking precise clever absurd Ms Mentor has it all      Professors Behaving Badly John M. Braxton,Eve M. Proper,Alan E. Bayer,2011-12-01 A faculty member publishes an article without offering coauthorship to a graduate assistant who has made a substantial conceptual or methodological contribution to the article A professor does not permit graduate students to express viewpoints different from her own A graduate student close to finishing his dissertation cannot reach his traveling advisor a circumstance that jeopardizes his degree This book discusses these and other examples of faculty misconduct and how to avoid them Using data collected through faculty surveys the authors describe behaviors associated with graduate teaching which are considered inappropriate and in violation of good teaching practices They derive a normative structure that consists of five inviolable and eight admonitory proscriptive criteria to help graduate faculty make informed and acceptable professional choices The authors discuss the various ways in which faculty members acquire the norms of teaching and mentoring including the graduate school socialization process role models disciplinary codes of ethics and scholarship about the professoriate and professional performance Analyzing the rich data gleaned from the faculty surveys they track how these norms are understood and interpreted across academic disciplines and are influenced by such factors as gender citizenship age academic rank tenure research activity and administrative experience

A Companion to the American Novel Alfred Bendixen, 2014-11-17 Featuring 37 essays by distinguished literary scholars A Companion to the American Novel provides a comprehensive single volume treatment of the development of the novel in the United States from the late 18th century to the present day Represents the most comprehensive single volume introduction to this popular literary form currently available Features 37 contributions from a wide range of distinguished literary scholars Includes essays on topics and genres historical overviews and key individual works including The Scarlet Letter Moby Dick The Great Gatsby Beloved and many more Wisdom, Wit, and Will Hilary Apfelstadt, 2009 Includes biographies of selected American women choral conductors Be Visible Or Vanish Inger Mewburn, Simon Clews, 2023-05-09 The world of the academic researcher is changing it used to be enough to work hard do your research and get your results published Not so these days Universities now expect researchers to share their work with the world as widely as possible Publish or perish has been replaced by a new mantra and the pressure is on In this insightful book Inger Mewburn and Simon Clews look at some of the most common presentation scenarios that researchers will face when talking about their work Starting in academia with the deceptively simple art of writing a good email and working through lectures conference presentations and lightning talks the book then moves off campus and explores talking to the media making elevator pitches and creating an effective digital presence on social media Offering detailed looks at 19 different presentation formats Mewburn and Clews tap into their vast experience in the field to analyse the challenges and opportunities aligned with each case study and to map out the route to success With a lightness of touch and an often humorous approach Be Visible Or Vanish Engage Influence and Ensure Your Research Has Impact will show you what it takes to achieve that holy grail of modern academia impact This text will be invaluable for students academics and researchers hoping to effectively communicate complex information in a way that can be understood and appreciated by their peers colleagues and the wider world The Insider Guides to Success in Academia offers support and practical advice to doctoral students and early career researchers Covering the topics that really matter but which often get overlooked this indispensable series provides practical and realistic guidance to address many of the needs and challenges of trying to operate and remain in academia These neat pocket guides fill specific and significant gaps in current literature Each book offers insider perspectives on the often implicit rules of the game the things you need to know but usually aren't told by institutional postgraduate support researcher development units or supervisors and will address a practical topic that is key to career progression They are essential reading for doctoral students early career researchers supervisors mentors or anyone looking to launch or maintain their career in academia Louisiana Women Janet Allured, Judith F. Gentry, 2009 Moving chronologically from the colonial period to the present this collection of seventeen biographical essays provides a window into the social cultural and geographic milieu of women's lives in the state Within the context of the historical forces that have shaped Louisiana the contributors look at ways in which the women they profile either abided by prevailing gender norms or negotiated new models of behavior for themselves and other women Louisiana Women concludes with an essay that examines women's active responses to problems that emerged in New Orleans after Hurricane Katrina. The women whose absorbing life stories are collected here include Marie Therese Coincoin who was born a slave but later became a successful entrepreneur and Oretha Castle Haley civil rights activist and leader of the New Orleans chapter of CORE. From such well known figures as author Kate Chopin and Voudou priestess Marie Laveau to lesser known women such as Cajun musician Cleoma Breaux Falcon this volume reveals a compelling cross section of historical figures. The women profiled vary by race class political affiliation and religious persuasion but they all share an unusual grit and determination that allowed them to turn trying circumstances into opportunity. Lively yet rigorous these essays introduce readers to the courageous dedicated and inventive women who have been an essential part of Louisiana's history. Historical figures included Marie Thérèse Coincoin The Baroness Pontalba Marie Laveau Sarah Katherine Kate Stone Eliza Jane Nicholson Kate Chopin Grace King Louisa Williams Robinson Her Daughters and Her Granddaughters Clementine Hunter Dorothy Dix True Methodist Women Cleoma Breaux Falcon Caroline Dormon Mary Land Rowena Spencer Oretha Castle Haley Louisiana Women and Hurricane Katrina

Identity Papers Bronwyn T Williams, 2006-09-30 How do definitions of literacy in the academy and the pedagogies that reinforce such definitions influence and shape our identities as teachers scholars and students. The contributors gathered here reflect on those moments when the dominant cultural and institutional definitions of our identities conflict with our other identities shaped by class race gender sexual orientation location or other cultural factors. These writers explore the struggle identify the sources of conflict and discuss how they respond personally to such tensions in their scholarship teaching and administration. They also illustrate how writing helps them and their students compose alternative identities that may allow the connection of professional identities with internal desires and senses of self. They emphasize how identity comes into play in education and literacy and how institutional and cultural power is reinforced in the pedagogies and values of the writing classroom and writing profession AMS Newsletter American Musicological Society, 1997

Theorizing Backlash Anita M. Superson, Ann E. Cudd, 2002-04-08 Contrary to the popular belief that feminism has gained a foothold in the many disciplines of the academy the essays collected in Theorizing Backlash argue that feminism is still actively resisted in mainstream academia. Contributors to this volume consider the professional philosophical and personal backlashes against feminist thought and reflect upon their ramifications. The conclusion is that the disdain and irrational resentment of feminism even in higher education amounts to a backlash against progress      The Academic's Handbook A. Leigh DeNeef,Craufurd D. Goodwin,Craufurd D. W.
